Anti-Longs Approve Judge Kennon Slate

Baton Rouge, La., May 12. — (AP) — Anti-Long leaders here voiced approval today of a gubernatorial slate headed by Appeal Judge Robert F. Kennon of Minden and State Sen. Robert Ainsworth of New Orleans.

The group of about 50 caucused for three hours with New Orleans Mayor de Lesseps S. Morrison, avowed political foe of Gov. Earl K. Long's faction.

Mayor Morrison declined comment but other conferees said "Kennon and Ainsworth have the inside track with us."

They said a majority favored Kennon as a candidate for governor and Ainsworth as his running mate for lieutenant governor.

"Somebody suggested Mayor Morrison for governor," one said, "but the mayor told us he could not run because he had to complete a lot of his projects in New Orleans."

Judge Kennon unsuccessfully opposed Gov. Long in the 1948 state elections. Later, Russell Long—the governor's nephew and son of the late Huey P. Long—defeated Kennon for the U. S. senate.

Ainsworth, a New Orleans attorney, was elected to the state senate in 1950 without opposition. He previously had managed both of Mayor Morrison's election campaigns in New Orleans.

Today's caucus of anti-Long leaders in the Baton Rouge area was called by Joe Sanders, attorney here and former state representative from Sabine parish.

Conferees said Sanders was elected caucus chairman, with L. D. Young of Port Allen and Alex Berry of Albany as vice chairman.

"Nothing definite has been decided," said one member of the group, "but we agreed we had to solidify forces and be sure we picked a man that everybody was behind."

He said similar meetings will be held in other cities throughout the state, leading to general action on a ticket to oppose candidates brought out by Gov. Long's faction.

"Mayor Morrison did not try to influence us," said one member. "He suggested potential candidates and we discussed them."

DEMOCRATS FACE 'SORDID SYMBOL'

G. O. P. Warned Against Definite Tieup With MacArthur, However

Tulsa, Okla., May 12.—Rep. Halleck (R-Ind.) predicted today the handling of the Korean war will remain "a sordid symbol of disaster" for the Truman administration in the 1952 presidential election.

The Indiana congressman told the final public session of the GOP national committee here it would be a "fatal error," however, for the Republicans to "allow ourselves to be led into bypaths of argument over personalities and transient events."

This was an obvious reference to the great debate over Far Eastern policies of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the deposed Pacific commander.

Halleck's cautionary note against the direct Republican tie-up with MacArthur's views appeared to represent the general sentiment of national committee members.

Most of these leaders agreed that MacArthur had stirred deep interest in the country, adding that this had rebounded to the benefit of the Republican party and against the Truman administration.

However, they made it clear that they don't look upon MacArthur as a possible presidential candidate at their nominating convention, to be held in Chicago the week of July 7, 1952.

In the estimate of some of the

DRAFT EXEMPTION FOR H. S. SENIORS

Northeast Begins Registration, Interviews For Students Monday

Registration for admission to college will open Monday at Northeast Louisiana State College for high school students graduating at the end of the current academic year. If accepted by the institution, these students will be deferred for a year from military service.

The announcement was made Saturday by President Lewis C. Slater, following instructions from Selective Service Headquarters, New Orleans.

Students who are accepted by the college will then give written evidence to the local draft board. Nothing more is required, according to the New Orleans directive.

Application may begin as early as 8 a. m. Monday, President Slater said. Northeastern officials are ready to cooperate in this program designed to provide eligible young men with further educational advantages.

High school graduating seniors who are granted admission to college may enroll in the Reserve Officers Training Corps and work toward a commission. While the student's military service is being postponed, he is given opportunity at the local college to earn a commission as a second lieutenant.

Two Boys Drown In Wells Lake

Boat Capsizes With Eight Children, Adults Rescue Six

Sicily Island, La., May 12.—(Special)—Two boys drowned Saturday afternoon in Wells Lake, about two and one-half miles south of Sicily Island, when a boat laden with eight children capsized in water 20 feet deep.

Six were rescued by relatives, along on the family fishing party. Victims were: Robert Marshall Slade, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slade, Jr., of Baskin and Jimmy Finklea, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Finklea of Shreveport.

The body of the Slade child, with a toy cowboy pistol still hanging from his waist, was recovered by Dudley Odom and B. B. Axon at 4:30 p.m., an hour and twenty minutes after the boat went under.

When the Slade boy was found, Axon, one of the rescuers, applied artificial respiration until a Natchez fire crew arrived with an automatic respirator. An hour under the machine failed to revive him and Dr. Henry Jones of Wisner declared the youngster dead.

Crews from the Monroe and Natchez fire departments were still dragging the lake last night for the body of the other child.

Natchez Assistant Fire Chief Vincent Guidic said the two crews are equipped to work all night if necessary.

Floodlights covering the entire area where the Slade youngster was found are already set up, but the dredging crews are seriously handicapped by snags and heavy layers of brush in the lake bottom.

The boy's family and Sicily Island residents were aiding in the search.

The Finklea family was visiting J. M. Slade, Sr., grandparent of the boy who was recovered. The child's father is a marine veteran, hospitalized in New Orleans.

J. C. Slade, the drowned child's uncle, had taken the eight children out for a boat-ride. Shortly after they moved away from the bank, the motor stopped and the boat submerged at a narrow bottle-neck in the lake.

George L. Housely, father of one of the rescued girls, helped get some of the children out of the water.

Reds Prepare To Attack Despite Heavy Pounding

Tokyo, Sunday, May 13. — (AP) — Massing Red troops today stepped up their preparations in the mountains of central Korea for a new offensive despite heavy Allied artillery and plane attacks.

Another Red concentration, estimated at 15,000, was reported on the western front about 20 miles northwest of Seoul.

Reds in the center were pouring down from the north toward a three-mile-wide bridgehead on the south bank of the Choyang river more than 45 miles northeast of Seoul.

The mid-morning communiques of both the U. S. Eighth army in Korea and general headquarters in Tokyo noted a stepup of Red activities.

"Air observation reported an increase in enemy activity and movement in the area southeast of Hwachon during the day (Saturday)," Eighth army reported.

Hwachon, seven miles north of the 38th parallel, is 15 miles northwest of the Reds' Choyang river bridgehead near Chuncheon in South Korea.

The Reds repulsed American infantry in a six-hour battle Saturday and expanded the bridgehead.

The general headquarters communique said "air sightings indicate acceleration of hostile activity in forward areas and movement of supplies southward."

Nehru Hearlds Small Russian Aid Over More Generous Gift From U. S.

New Delhi, India, May 12.—United States officials are chagrined at the pro-Soviet feeling engendered here by the shipment of Russian wheat to this nation, announced on the same day that Prime Minister Nehru accepted terms for much larger U. S. aid.

Nehru himself contributed to a major Communist propaganda gain among India's hungry millions by the dramatic announcement in parliament Thursday that "Russian ships with wheat have started for India." He referred to a relatively minor 50,000-ton purchase.

Only an hour later did he tell parliament that he saw no political strings attached to famine relief bills in the U. S. congress to supply India with 2,000,000 tons of wheat.

The result was that the American move to help was obscured by the start of the Russian shipment. Obscured also was the fact that more than 100,000 tons are coming to India each month from the

Local Girl Injured By Boat Propeller

A 21-year-old West Monroe girl was in the St. Francis Sanitarium last night receiving treatment for a severe laceration sustained when she fell out of a motor boat in the Ouachita river yesterday afternoon.

Eleanor Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, 702 South Fifth street, West Monroe, was said to be in good condition by hospital attendants.

A member of the family explained that Miss Mitchell was in the boat with Louis Craig, West Monroe, when the accident occurred, and that they were "riding the waves" at the time.

She was injured when the propeller on the boat slashed her right side as she fell out.

'DAY BY DAY'

Points Out That Russia Is 'Real Opponent' We Must Deal With

SEN. LONG TAKES OVER SPOTLIGHT IN QUIZZING

By Don Whitehead

Washington, May 12. — (AP) — Secretary of Defense Marshall declared today "we are moving toward success" in ending Red Chinese aggression in Korea, but warned that Russia is the "real opponent" who could plunge the world into war.

On the sixth day of his marathon testimony in the Senate's MacArthur hearings, declared the Red Chinese are "losing many thousands of people with each operation."

"We are destroying them. In one sense, day by day," he said. But he declared that Russia might march against western Europe at any moment. And he stuck steadfastly to the administration thesis that the risk of provoking Russian intervention in Asia forbids the high command to follow the strategy advocated by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

MacArthur was deposed for disagreeing with the administration and publicly advocating such steps as a blockade of Red China, bombing of Manchurian bases and the use of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist troops. The senate foreign relations and armed services

M'CARTHY GIVES ACHESON 3 WEEKS

Senator Predicts Secretary Of State Will Soon Be Fired

Washington, May 12.—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) predicted today that Secretary of State Acheson would be "fired" within the next three weeks.

His prediction was made in a press release from his Washington office shortly before he spoke at a Chamber of Commerce meeting at Marshfield, Wis. Aides in his office said he was expected to include the remarks in his speech.

President Truman has denied he intends to let Acheson out.

McCarthy declared a decision to dismiss Acheson was made shortly after William M. Boyle, Jr., chairman of the Democratic national committee, "wrote the state department that Democratic congressmen were being flooded with letters demanding something he done about the state department."

He added that MacArthur's return "called attention to the state department's sell-out to communism and has awakened the American people so thoroughly that the administration can no longer ignore demands that Acheson be removed."

McCarthy declared it would be

Radioactivity Not Critical Factor In A-Bomb Blasts

Seattle, May 12.—Rep. Jackson (D-Wash.) said today that latest atomic tests at Eniwetok Atoll in mid-Pacific showed that radioactivity is not a critical factor in A-bomb explosions, and tactical use of atomic weapons in the field is completely feasible.

Jackson, a ranking member of the joint congressional atomic committee, said at a news conference that results of the third series of tests at Eniwetok were of vital importance both from the standpoint of military operations and civilian defense.

He said that security restrictions prevented disclosure of the exact time and number of the most recent atomic tests, but they occurred within recent days.

Jackson attended the closely-guarded "Operation Greenhouse" atomic trial as observer for the joint committee.

The Washington congressman, who arrived at mid-day by plane from San Francisco, said the test

"marks a definite step forward in the field of atomic weapons and had immeasurably improved our atomic stockpile position."

"Our atomic weapons will be more effective than ever before, they are many times more powerful than the A-bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, which represented a force equivalent to 20,000 tons of TNT," Jackson said.

He repeatedly emphasized that one of the most important lessons learned in past weeks at Eniwetok was that civilian defense crews can go immediately into an area devastated by an atomic explosion without fear of lethal radioactivity.

"This same discovery that death-causing radioactivity does not contaminate the explosion area paves the way for the tactical use of atomic weapons in warfare," Jackson explained. "We learned that our troops can advance through the very area destroyed by atomic blasts."

Twin Cities Unite To Celebrate 'Armed Forces Day' Monday; Admiral To Speak

Monroe and West Monroe citizens will join hands tomorrow, May 14, in a day long series of events designed to pay tribute to America's "Defenders of Freedom," our armed forces. It will be the Twin Cities' greatest Armed Forces Day celebration since 1948.

The day's activities will revolve around three highlights, a Silver Star presentation for gallantry to the mother of a soldier missing in Korea, the 11 o'clock parade, and Adm. Hugh H. Goodwin's keynote address at the Armed Forces Day luncheon atop the Virginia.

Mrs. Allene Culppepper, route three, Monroe, will receive the high military decoration for her heroic son, Cpl. Floyd C. Culppepper, missing in action in Korea since Nov. 25, 1950. Cpl. Gaston Elkel, former National Guard commandant here, will make the award on the reviewing stand in front of the Palace as a representative of the war department.

The giant military parade, marshalled by Maj. Eugene M. Freeman, will form in West Monroe, march through West Monroe and down DeSard street in Monroe. It will be composed of high school bands from local and surrounding schools, 221 officers and men of the 82nd heavy tank battalion from Camp Polk, National Guard units and equipment, ROTC cadet corps from NELSC, and veterans' groups.

Monroe's own high-ranking flag officer, Rear Adm. Hugh H. Goodwin, will deliver the keynote address at Armed Forces Day luncheon on the Virginia roof from 12 to 1 p.m. The luncheon is open to the general public at $1.25 per person. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is luncheon host and reservations may be made by phoning their office.

Six-hundred - mile-an-hour army and navy jets will roar over the Twin Cities at 11:15 a.m. From 2-5 p.m. there will be an open house at the National Guard Armory

Shooting Chase Ends In Arrest Of Driver

New Orleans, May 12.—A 30-year-old Jefferson parish motorist was arrested on several traffic counts early today after what police said was a pistol shot-punctuated chase along the airline highway.

Third district police said Robert Gaudet of Jefferson parish was booked for speeding 80 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone, reckless driving and with disturbing the peace by resisting arrest.

Motorcycle Patrolman George Stevens, 30, said he fired four shots during the chase along the airline highway, down Labarre road to Jefferson highway and on Central Ave., where Gaudet lives.

He said he began to chase Gaudet at Tulane and S. Carrollton at about 5:45 a.m. when, he said, Gaudet was doing 80. When Gaudet refused to halt at the Orleans-Jefferson parish line, he said, he fired a shot over the car.

Stevens said Gaudet stopped and told him he could not make an arrest in Jefferson parish and drove off.

Twice more, he said, Gaudet refused to stop when ordered to do so and each time, Stevens said, he fired over the car. After Gaudet turned onto Central Ave., Stevens said he fired at one of Gaudet's tires, but missed, hitting the fender shield and hub cap.

It was only after Gaudet reached his home and state police arrived that Gaudet was taken into custody, Stevens said.

THREE CHILDREN DROWN
Memphis, Tenn., May 12.—(AP)—Three young children, who had "begged" to go fishing, drowned today in a stock watering pond near the city limits.

The Tennessee highway patrol identified them as Agnes Faye Harrison, nine; her brother, Robert Lawrence Harrison, 11; and Frankie Strickland, eight.

All three were pulled from ten feet of water after two smaller children reported their disappearance in the pond.

COUNTRY POLITICS BRING BLOODSHED

County Court Clerk Shot To Death From Ambush In Tenn.

Benton, Tenn., May 12.—(AP)—An uneasy calm hung over Polk county today as bloodshed was attributed to mountain country politics for the second time in less than three years.

Democrat W. A. Lewis, 43, chairman of the county court, was shot to death from ambush at his home late last night.

He previously had been the prime target of verbal barrages from the bi-partisan Good Government League in a quarrel which has paralyzed county government for three months.

Today knots of men from both parties gathered on the streets of this small (population 600) south-east Tennessee city. GGL members expressed shock. Democrats said an anonymous "they" will have to pay.

Leaders of both parties attributed the death to politics. L. H. Park, chairman of the county Democratic executive committee, said "It's bound to have been the Cagunk. I don't know of another enemy Lewis had in the world."

Sheriff John Edwards, a GGL leader, also blamed "politics." He directed a hunt in which almost no clues to the killing have been found.

The state highway patrol was alerted to move in if the slaying brings further bloodshed. The National Guard was sent here during the 1948 election, when three persons were slain as the newly formed GGI swept county offices.

Wind Does Job Valued At $300

Buckroe Beach, Va., May 12.—(AP)—Not such an ill wind—so far as Milo Begor is concerned—was the storm that hit this Chesapeake Bay town last night.

A contractor had quoted him a price of about $300 to remove a 65-by-15-foot roof from the porch of a cottage he owns here and piling the lumber in the rear of the structure.

The wind lifted the porch roof intact, over the cottage, and deposited it neatly in the rear—exactly where Begor had wanted it.

WOMAN DOCTOR SLASHES WRISTS

Dr. Nancy Campbell Seeks Death Rather Than Term
For Kidnaping

Albuquerque, May 12.—Dr. Nancy Campbell sought death today rather than go to prison for kidnaping. But she failed and was admitted at noon to start serving 10 to 15 years in the state penitentiary at Santa Fe.

"I prefer cremation. This is the best way out, Nancy," read a note she penned in her jail cell before slashing her wrist with a smuggled razor blade.

Another woman prisoner found the Santa Fe woman doctor bleeding in a shower room. The jailor called a doctor who stopped the bleeding before Doctor Campbell's condition became serious.

It was another of the fateful events that have dogged Dr. Campbell ever since she kidnapped a Santa Fe school girl.

The brilliant physician yesterday gave up her fight against the sentence, dropping plans for an appeal to the state supreme court. She had been free on $40,000 appeal bond.

Dr. Campbell, 44, was convicted April 21 of the ransom kidnaping of Linda Stamm, nine, step-daughter of Allan Stamm, wealthy Santa Fe contractor. Her plea of insanity was rejected by a district court jury.

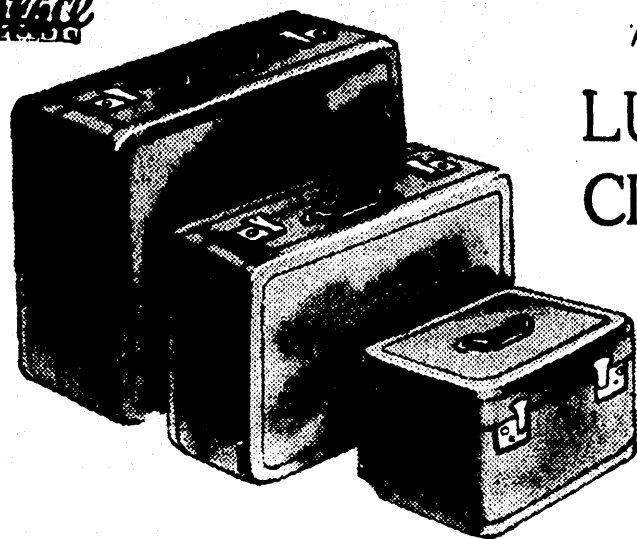

The Stamm child was lured from her home last November 10 and was returned unharmed the following night after FBI and other officers seized Dr. Campbell as she reached for a dummy ransom package.

Dr. Campbell was brought to the Bernalillo county jail last night by two sheriff's officers who picked her up at a sanatorium near Albuquerque where she had been staying since the trial.

Mother

Motherhood today is at once a joy, a responsibility and an anxiety. That is true in a greater degree than at any time in the history of America.

The joy of motherhood was implanted by the Creator. It was less a responsibility in simpler times that America has known, times of moral stability, of sterner disciplines and of lesser temptations to juvenile delinquency. Anxiety is at an all-time high because of the uncertainties of a world that seems to be disintegrating.

This puts the greatest burden on motherhood, that it is ever known. Mere mother love isn't enough. It must be an intelligent love, a love that penetrates the tremendous complexities of modern life and prepares her youngster to meet them, a love that not only trains the child for material well-being but for that spiritual strength which is so much needed to meet the buffeting of the times.

It seems like a crushing responsibility, but mother love thrives best under challenge. Any mother worthy of the name will protect her young against all menaces. That was simple when the menace was mostly physical. But the problem today is to identify the dangers that threaten the moral and spiritual well-being of the child. That is not so easy, but motherhood today is making progress at the job. There are millions of mothers who are sincerely dedicated to the highest of all tasks, that of moulding splendid men and women. That kind of mother is the salt of the earth and merits all of the praise and gratitude that are bestowed upon her on Mother's Day.

Bankers And Farmers

Two groups whose relationship, according to joke and story, has not always been too close will be brought together at a series of farm meetings in Louisiana between May 14 and May 18. These meetings are the farm clinics sponsored each year by the agricultural committee of the Louisiana Bankers Association, the federal reserve banks of Dallas and New Orleans, the Louisiana State University agricultural extension service, and various federal farm agencies. The two groups that will be brought together, are, of course, bankers and farmers. The purpose of the clinics is to improve relations between finance and agriculture and show more bankers how diversified farming and better methods of soil preparation, fertilization, cultivation and harvesting and better methods of livestock breeding and feeding have made farming a sounder business than ever before.

For some bankers these meetings, during which typical farms will be visited and their farming operations discussed, may be an eye opener, but not to all of them. The jokes about the troubles of bankers and farmers may once have had some foundation in fact, but they have less foundation today than ever before.

Today, farmers are better business men than ever before and so, for that matter, are bankers. The farmer realizes the importance of businesslike operation and sound financing. The banker realizes the importance to agriculture of proper financing and knows that a well-operated farm is as good a business risk as any other kind of business. The banks of Louisiana have become a prominent factor in the development of Louisiana agriculture because bankers know that nothing can improve the prosperity of any city or town more quickly than increased prosperity in its rural trade area.

Thorns For Flowers

Story of the California family which received a small fortune from the estate of a man who had been befriended years ago is one right out of the book of modern fairy tales. Yet such things do happen in real life. An eastern university received a million dollars from the estate of a man who had been escorted over the campus by a thoughtful student.

The California family, bound for a day at the beach nearly 40 years ago, picked up a wayfarer with no thought in mind except to give him a lift, and perhaps have him join in the outfit. They were all "singing and so happy," their benefactor noted in a will giving them an even $100,000. "I live to be 1,000 I will forget that day and their happiness and kindness."

There are many opportunities to be thoughtful and kindly, the very acts being their own reward.

Mr. and Mrs. United States! Today's column is by Philip Wylie, the bookwriter, whose best-sellers include "A Generation of Vipers" and "The Disappearance." You've probably met Wylie in the Statepost (and other mags) via his delightful essays about deep-sea fishing, etc. . . . Readers who still miss Heywood Brown's common sense and word-magic appreciate Wylie's.

Dear WW: In these spring days of 1951 I have begun to wonder if the American people have lost their minds. Maybe you can ask them. And maybe I'm the nutty one—though people like you and me were called nutty before the Second World War and it proved we were right then, while the public was day-dreaming, in the main. Here are some questions I wish I could answer.

Since the American people now know that the Soviet has a stockpile of plutonium bombs, why don't they react like people in a dreadful danger—people whose peril will grow less only after they act by the millions in a thousand ways? The people have been told exactly by what atomic bombs are like. They've been told that, if they get set to be slugged in their cities, they can "take it" and cut casualties to one-fifth of what they'd be now.

Getting set for that means a lot. It means twenty million volunteer workers. It means spending billions of bucks to stockpile medicines and drugs and to re-inforce buildings and to arrange and rehearse systems of priority evacuation—beginning with children—and it means preparing the whole landscape around every big industrial city to receive, temporarily, city refugees. It means new fire fighting equipment, mass produced. It means all sorts of electronic equipment and people trained to run it.

Getting set means more. It means "basic training" for every man and woman and child in a possible target area. It means bracing the nerves and minds of people likely to be in an A-Bomb-blast zone. It means the terrible sights bound to ensue—the burned, the wounded, the "fire storms," the naked, the hysterical and so on.

Getting set means having the stuff and the know-how to save the injured, to rescue the trapped, to douse the gigantic fires. It means, also, being ready to bear the terrible (but not dangerous) after-show of atomic bombs.

For some bankers these meetings, during which typical farms will be visited and their farming operations discussed, may be an eye opener, but not to all of them. The jokes about the troubles of bankers and farmers may once have had some foundation in fact, but they have less foundation today than ever before.

THESE DAYS

PRESIDENT AND COURTS

In going through the material on the curious dollar case which has been in the courts for about six years and brought to Secretary of Commerce Sawyer a charge of contempt, I found this item:

"Judge Bennett Champ Clark said he was an old friend of the president, but:

"If you have any idea that a letter from the president of the United States has any weight in court, you are very badly mistaken. We have the greatest respect for the office of the president of the United States, but he is not a lawyer, and he has no more standing in this court than any other citizen. The president has no right to influence litigation by letter to somebody."

It is curious that the president finds it so difficult to grasp the essentials of our system of government based upon the independence of the three branches of government. Judge Clark is to be congratulated on a courageous statement on the exclusive independence of the judiciary, an attitude which too many of our judges have abandoned in these days of pressures and pressure groups. In fact, a conscientious judge should not even read a letter, not in evidence, in a matter pending before him. Yet, we notice in the press constant references to individuals and associations addressing letters and petitions to judges during litigation. The process is antagonistic to our conceptions of justice.

Our people seem to forget that the president of the United States is an official of limited authority whose rights are proscribed by the constitution.

The writers of the constitution did not want a despotic king. Had they such a view of the presidency, they would have chosen George Washington king for life with an arrangement concerning the succession. But they had had all that they wanted of George III a German who tried to be an autocrat in England and over her colonies. Therefore, the powers and the tenure of the president were sharply curtailed.

For instance, a federal judge is appointed for life or good behavior. A United States senator has a six year term. But the president is limited to a four year term and Washington, who possessed an unerring instinct for the future, set the precedent of a limit of two terms, a rule followed diligently until Franklin D. Roosevelt managed to set it aside. (The two-term limitation is now law.)

Granted that the functions of the executive branch of the government have increased since the constitution was written, the structure of our government has in no manner been altered, and it is upon that structure that our freedom depends. This is particularly true with regard to the courts, for were they to lose their independence, the executive could indeed become a tyrant.

I have, from time to time, called attention to the peril of the ruthless censorship which the president insists upon in relation to testimony of military personnel, even of high rank. For instance, not even a five-star general, may testify before a congressional committee save within the margins set by the department of defense.

In simple language, none of their testimony may be believed, not even that of General Omar Bradley or General Eisenhower because it is not free testimony. It is circumscribed and limited. What will happen, for instance, in the MacArthur situation when General MacArthur, General Wedemeyer, General Ridgway, and others testify as the department of defense does not wish them to testify? Will they all be court-martialed?

The president seems to adopt the attitude that he is the government of the United States. But that is precisely what the constitution seeks to avoid. The president is one of five officers whom Americans elect to federal positions. These five are president, vice president, two United States senators, and one member of the house of representatives. American can vote for more than these and in the eyes of the law, they represent equal branches of the authority of government.

By a system of checks and balances, the constitution arranges that no one branch is without a relationship to another. For instance, the president appoints the chief justice of the Supreme Court; yet that court can declare an act signed by the president unconstitutional and the chief justice presides over the senate sitting as a court in an impeachment proceedings.

Ours is a system in which no man is all powerful and in which no one man prevails. (Copyright, 1951, King Features, Syndicate, Inc.)

naked flank of American defenses today. Protecting it is not a Pentagon problem but everybody's business. So why don't we all catch on and pitch in? And why doesn't congress begin to realize that unless it, too, acts sensibly, there may sooner or later come an instant when the Capitol and the Monuments, the Pentagon and the White House just won't be there, any more?

This time civil defense is no claim-bake. It's the front line trenches and we're all in them and we better learn how to fight an atomic war or we may one day be looking up our flagpoles at a hammer and sickle—those of us willing to live like that, I mean. As ever, for freedom, Phil Wylie.

New York Day By Day

New York—Reparations: Manhattan's Strand dreamed up a robust welcome for 16 "can-can" cuties who arrived on the SS "Le de France" for next week's stage show, "Parisian Follies." The theater's publicist teamed with the recreation office of a warship in port to have 16 U. S. sailors board the liner to give the French gals their personal Yankee Doodle welcome. One of these Parisiennes howled and belabored a swabbie with her umbrella as soon as they were introduced, then chased him until he fled down the gangplank.

She had met this sailor before in France following VE-day, she explained—and he wooed and fled that time, too.

Faux Polished—Jed Harris, who originally produced "Broadway" with Lee Tracy and Sylvia Field starring, restaged one scene from it that was warmly revived by Tracy and Field for the annual ANTA Album of hits. But no one backstage for its rehearsal can be sure whether his recapture of the old Tracy-Field mood was accomplished by deliberate trick, or a slip of the lip. Because at one point prior to showtime, when Harris was displeased with Tracy's enacting, Jed waved his hands in the air excitedly and yelled: "No, no, you just haven't got it. You should have seen Tracy play this scene from the hit in 1926."

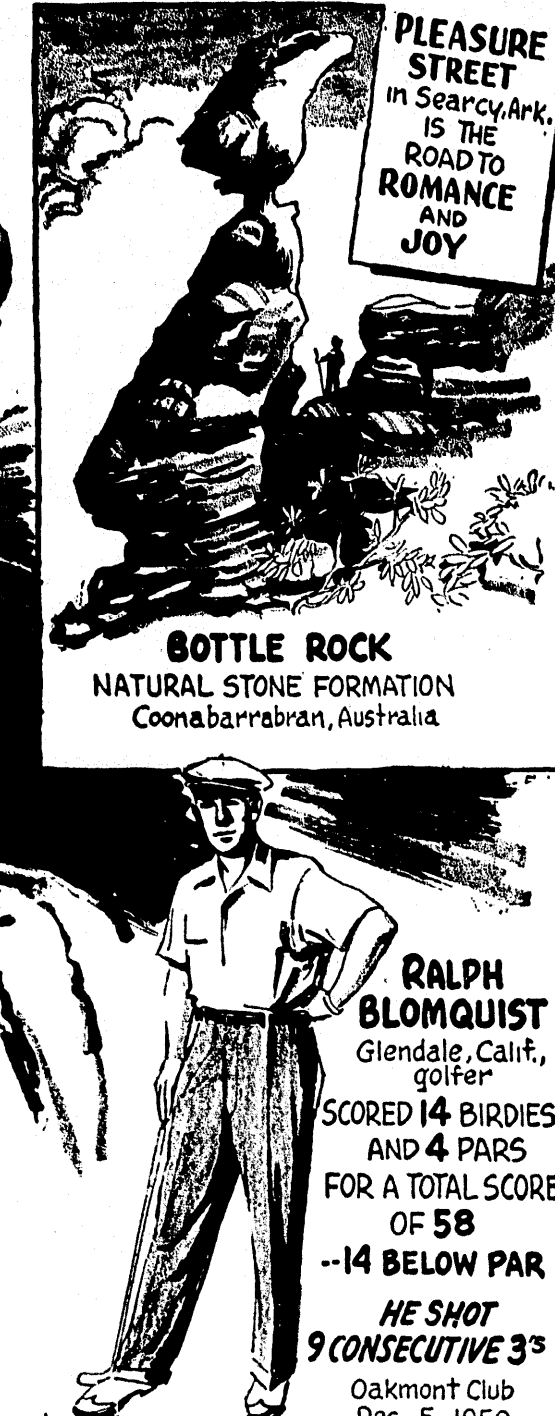

Drama improved, following this absent-minded-professor fluff and guffaws.

Afterglow—Ella Logan showed up for her ANTA stint happy as a clambake. Blamed it all on four roses, which everybody sniffed. Ella explained the flowers were from Count Turf's decoration for winning the Kentucky Derby, which Ella also won. She further explained that she and her p. wright-husband, Fred Finkelhoff, had returned to town Saturday night with jockey Conn McCreary who booted the Count to victory, and declared the week-end was all-out celebration for the trio. . . . Ginger Rogers and Paul Hartman scored such a slam with their ANTA revival of a comic dance routine, which Paul and Grace used to do, that a repeat performance was demanded later in the Stork during the star-studded gala cooked up by Billingsley for her. . . . Tallulah Bankhead pulled the punches in her devastating satire of Betty Davis. Introduced it as a takeoff from Betty's Oscar-winning film titled "All About Me." Talloo is still seething over the parallels drawn between her and the lampooning she got from Davis in "All About Eve."

Sly Flying—Britain's rules against taking cash out of the country has bred a bagful of wrinkles for sneaking assets into the U. S. for subsequent spending here, but some trans-Atlantic airline pilots have been working one dodge into a larcenous racket that is bound to blow up in their faces. Ray Schindler, the private detective agency head, showed me the evidence of three such cases the other day, but none of the British victims is willing to institute criminal prosecution because they might thereby become involved in legal troubles of their own at home. It's a simple ruse, obviously fool-proof for an easy money-grabbing airman.

First the pilot lines up the Britisher who wants to vacation in New York, but has no funds here. Then he persuades the tourist to part with a gem, which he flies from London, smuggles past cus-

IN HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, May 12.—(P)—That master of the growl and rumble, Lionel Barrymore, has told his memoirs and they reveal him to be as sentimental as any of us.

The reminiscences have come out under the title "We Barrymores." They were told to Cameron Shipp, the sage of Glendale who also listened to Billie Burke's reminiscences. The book is full of gruff, self-effacing anecdotes, as well as warm recollections of Lionel's fellow workers. This is how he discusses some of them:

John Barrymore—"My brother's real and earnest and lifelong ambition was to be a painter. Like me, he made his bid early and failed. He even went so far, once, as to persuade Maurice (his father) to put money for lessons in the hands of the art students league; but eager as he was to learn and to escape, trapping Jack Barrymore in a classroom was like tethering a he-fawn in a cell. He broke loose in one day and escaped."

Greta Garbo—"I worked with her in 'The Temptress,' in 'Camille,' in 'Mata Hari' and in 'Grand Hotel' without getting to know her. . . . Her unpretentiousness was so extreme that it amounted almost to a malady. She appeared and disappeared as silently as a wraith. . . .

"When you were fortunate enough to know her a little, she was very, very nice, and likable, and kind. She has real simplicity, the true simplicity of the genius only she is so diffident that her psychology is comparable to the terror of a gun-shy bird dog."

Margaret O'Brien—"I soon realized that Margaret could perform like no youngster I or anybody else had ever seen. When she takes over, you might as well imagine yourself a design on the wallpaper. You could stand on your head and no audience would notice you."

"Impressed by this virtuosity, I set about wooing the lady and was as successful as I could be with Miss Garbo."

Spencer Tracy and Lew Ayres—"Tracy is a master of the art of throwing lines away. The best lines of any author are barely audible, so casual is Spencer. The only other actor who comes anywhere near him in this department is Lew Ayres; I should ask no better entertainment than to watch a scene between these two men."

Ethel Barrymore—"In 1949 Ethel celebrated 53 years on theater and sound stage and her 70th birthday as MGM put her party on the wireless to what seemed like cosmic applause and to me like simple justice. My sister, after all, is the champion. She has licked the only unlickable person—time herself."

No Escape
It Happens - Every - Time
Dept:

Horace McMahon spent all of four years in Hollywood playing 50 gangster roles. He was typed as a "hug," hated it, but there was no escape. Finally he fled back to New York stage. In desperation, during a lean play season, he forgot his "I-hate-gangster-roles" fetish, and auditioned for the role of a thug in "Detective Story."

Sidney Kingsley heard his audition and promptly cast him in the play as a detective again for the movie version. But he's worried. He said:

"Maybe a good gangster role will come along now and I won't be right for the part."

A Beverly Hills meat market, catering to the film crowd, reports John Hoyt, had a sign in its window.

RIGHT TO OWN PROPERTY

It is an historic fact that the human race made its first step out of a tribal society when the individual was granted the right to possess things and call them his own. Progress may be based on a number of factors, but none of them is stronger than the right to own property. Without this right, recognized and guaranteed by government, incentive is dead, and the individual in society is either entirely subjugated or society itself reverts to the law of the jungle.

The tragic thing that has been happening in recent years and is still happening in many places is that this right of the individual to the ownership of property is being violated by government itself. Property can be taken from a man in other ways than by a thief in the night or by hold-up in the day. Property can just as effectively be taken by taxation by the government—and regardless of the purpose for which it is taken, the one thing we must remember is that the undue taking of it kills incentive and stops progress.

The Socialist government of Great Britain embarked upon a program of redistribution of wealth when it came into power in 1945. Such a program is a deliberate violation of the right to the ownership of property. They have for some time now reached the limit of the amount they can obtain by taxation in this manner, and yet the end result has only been to penalize superior ability and leadership and to condemn the whole nation to a life of mediocrity. This policy has in a large measure not only destroyed the wealth thus far accumulated but has destroyed all incentive to accumulate any more wealth.

We need to be very careful else we be deluded into a similar program here in our own nation without realizing it. One of the comments often heard these days is that the distinguishing characteristic of the social progress we have made in this country during recent years is that we have learned to place human rights above property rights. That may sound good on the face of it, but it is vital that we not be deceived into believing there is a difference between philosophy to the contrary stems directly from the ideology of the Communists. The Communists know that the existing order, which it is their purpose to overthrow throughout the world, is based on the sanctity of ownership of property, and they know that if they can overthrow this order and violate this sanctity they will be well on the way to accomplishing their aims.

Such a philosophy also confuses many otherwise well-intentioned persons. It has a humanitarian flavor that deceives them when they do not stop to analyze it. However, such persons would do well to listen to one of our greatest humanitarians, Abraham Lincoln, on this point, when he said: ". . . Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; it is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

The attempt to overthrow and violate the right to the ownership of property, the observance of which is the basis of all sound and decent society, is nothing new in the life of the world; it is simply presented in new form. When we consider those who attempt it, therefore, we may well say of them, as did Daniel Webster when he stood up in the senate of the United States 112 years ago:

"Sir, what can such men want? What do they mean? They can want nothing, sir, but to enjoy the fruits of other men's labor. They can mean nothing but disturbance and disorder, the diffusion of corrupt principles and the destruction of the moral sentiments and moral habits of society."

Fouled Up
The Italian picture co-starring for mer Miss America, Marilyn Buford, and Toto, the clown, has struck a production snag. Marilyn was injured in a motor accident after a serious bout with pneumonia. . . . Inside word is that the Willinger photographs of John Garfield and Shelley Winters for billboards and posters for "He Ran All the Way" are too sizzling to pass the Johnston office censors.

Janis Carter is giving her parlor TV set some extra spit and polish these days. It was through her video appearances in New York that Hollywood found out that Janis could sing with the best of them. She's singing on a sound stage for the first time in RKO's "Half Breed."

And, appropriately enough, Janis is "half-dressed."

"A very brief costume and black net hose," she blushed. "I get wolf calls and whistles from the crew. It's the most anybody's ever seen of me. I never saw so many men in my life as the gang that watched while I did the number."

Janis had to give up TV rights for the long-term RKO contract, but she isn't bawling about it. "TV is the hardest work I've ever done and terribly exhausting. I'm the only blonde on the RKO lot. I don't conflict with anybody."

Evening Keyes plays Jeff Chandler's wife in "The Iron Man," the goes directly into "The Four Poster" as the wife of Robert Preston. She's willing: "I won't even have one day's rest between husbands."

RETIRED WORKERS HONORED BY MO. P. RY.

Views above show the large assemblage in the Mo. Pacific clubhouse here when former employees of the railroad were honored.

17 RETIRED BY M. P. HONORED

Party Given In Clubhouse To Recognize Past Workers

Seventeen retired men, their wives and one retired woman employee, were honor guests of the Missouri Pacific Women's club at the railroad clubhouse recently. The past presidents of the club in the receiving line comprised Mrs. C. E. Copeland, Mrs. A. J. Speer, Mrs. C. W. Dodgen, Mrs. Paul J. Newman, Mrs. M. R. Hausher and Mrs. R. H. Dollar.

Presiding over the guest book was Mrs. L. M. Posey, courtesy chairman, and Mike E. Pickett, master-of-ceremonies. Mrs. F. V. Reitzell was in charge of the program and on her committee were Mrs. Dollar and Mrs. Dodgen.

The program was initiated with the song, "I've Been Working on the Railroad" by the assemblage. Then followed musical numbers by Monroe String Ensemble, "Because," "Annie Laurie," "Bells of St. Mary," "Tea for Two" and "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise" rendered by Mrs. David Agnew, F. H. Burke, Leonard Jenkins, Wayne Walmsley, Harvey Nelson and Mrs. Harvey Nelson.

Introduction of honored guests was by J. W. Treadwell, Mrs. J. N. Coon gave readings. There was a vocal duet that furnished numbers, those participating being: Mrs. Paul Newman, Mrs. J. N. Coon, with Mrs. P. A. Poag as accompanist. A vocal duet, "Tennessee Waltz," Mrs. Cecil Hill and Mrs. Paul Newman, Solos, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Brahms Lullaby," Mrs. Paul Newman, Piano medleys, Mrs. P. A. Poag, Solos, "My Heart Cries for You" and "You Were Meant for Me," Mrs. Cecil Hill.

Courtesy remarks, Mrs. C. H. McAnis. Awards to the oldest and next in years went to G. R. Couch and J. H. Frazer and Mrs. E. W. Strong and Mrs. W. L. Perce. Door prize went to E. W. String and award for only woman employee, Mrs. Elizabeth Broadway, Grayson, La.

After the program, ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses, Mrs. R. E. Speer, Mrs. W. C. Lanier, Mrs. E. A. Klein, and Mrs. R. S. Baggett. Thirty members of the Women's club and their husbands were present.

Honored guests were the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Couch, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hiltbrandt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. ## NPA Official Slates Visit Here Tuesday

Representatives of both the national production authority and the office of price stabilization will be in Monroe Tuesday to consult with business people of the Twin Cities and surrounding area who need assistance with problems arising under the various regulations promulgated by the department of defense.

Roy D. Saunders, district manager of the NPA, will be available in the Chamber of Commerce offices from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. He will interview anyone having trouble with priority regulations and construction restrictions. In addition he will have with him the latest changes and amendments to NPA regulations which have become effective since his last visit to Monroe two weeks ago.

The OPS will have at least one business analyst and an attorney here, both of whom will also be available for interview at the Chamber offices during the same hours. Anyone having questions regarding price ceilings and the necessary reports required by OPS, will have an opportunity to question these officials.

Ivy C. Jordan, Chamber president, reminded local business people that an official of NPA will be in the Chamber offices every second Tuesday for consultation, and that OPS representatives will be available on Tuesday of every week. Anyone needing assistance or information, he said, is welcome to take advantage of the opportunity.

Model Plane Fans Invited To Meeting

Model airplane fans in the Twin Cities were invited yesterday by the Monroe Exchange club to enter a special model meet in Alexandria May 20.

The meet, sponsored by the Alexandria Exchange club, will be held on the new Model airplane field, which features two concrete runways and the apt name, "Hot Rod Air Field."

More than 50 different prizes, including trophies, merchandise and special awards, will be given to winners and runners-up in the various competition divisions. The grand prize for the day will be an all-expense trip to Dallas in July for the national model meet.

The big winner will also be presented with the Davis Memorial Cup, a trophy named in honor of Lt. Harry C. Davis, Tulsa aviator who was killed while a member of the 137th wing.

The contest is open to any state resident, regardless of age, who is a member of the A.M.A. model aviators' organization. Membership in the group will be available at the meet site.

Competitor will be in two divisions, Junior, for those under 16; and Open, for those 16 and older. Events include the following: Control line flying scale, classes A, B, C, D; control line stunt, A, B, C, D; control line speed, A and B; control line speed, C and D; and control line combat for all classes.

Application blanks for the meet may be obtained by any interested resident of the Twin Cities and surrounding area by phoning Bill Crow at 3-3792.

Columbia Planning First Lions Club

Columbia, La., May 12.—(Special)—A group of Columbia men will meet Tuesday night to organize the first Lions Club to ever exist in this Caldwell parish seat.

The organization will be assisted by the two Lions clubs in Monroe which send representatives to Columbia Tuesday night. The group will convene at 8 p.m.

Columbia, a thriving farm and timber town, is located on the Ouachita river 20 miles south of Monroe.

The new club is expected to get started with charter membership of over 40 members. Twenty-two businessmen and civic leaders have already announced intentions of becoming a part of the club.

Lions from the Twin Cities who will be present Tuesday night are: Ernest Gibson, Fran J. Brennan, George Moses W. E. Moore, P. E. Massey and A. B. Clarkson.

FARGICAL BALL GAME IS STAGED

Selman Teachers Play P.-T. A. Mothers In Contest On School Diamond

T. C. "Buck" Pipes acted as master of ceremonies Friday afternoon when the Selman Teachers met the P.-T. A. mothers on the field in a softball game. Mrs. Lera B. Hennessey very ably led the group in the singing of the national anthem. Mr. Pipes introduced the mothers, as they filed on to the field in wheel barrows, on crutches and with walking canes. The Red ambulance, furnished by Humble Contractors was on the spot ready for any emergency. The teachers, while not on crutches, were nevertheless living evidences that they were not as young as they once were.

The P.-T. A. mothers represented on the team were: Rose McDonald, Earle Dale Roberts, pitchers; June Pilgrim, Loraine White, catchers; Faye Laird 1b; Elsie Wilson, 2b; Trelle Pinholster, 3b; Martha Hudson, ss; Evelyn Thorne, rf; George, lf; Edith Petch, Ethel Humphries, cf; Lella Bennett, lf; Beatrice Foy, 3b. The teachers were represented by: Gladys Ballard, p; Lady Bird Johnson, 1b; Cleora Wilson, c; Sydney Ray Rhodes, 3b; Eunice Foman, ss; Mable Pipes, 2b; Jo Willis, lf; Martale Webb, rf; Elizabeth Leake, cf; Coon, of. The water boys, Martha Turnley, and Stanell were on the alert. Enestine Cook and Anderson made fine bat boys. The first aid group comprised of Molly Blackmon, Elaine Humble and Lucille Alford rendered first aid several times.

The "stretcher" had to be used once to remove Eunice Foman from the field due to a leg injury but she was able to walk back to her position. Among the highlights of the game was the protesting of Lady Bird Johnson showed her disapproval by interrupting the game long enough to hang a placard bearing the words BLIND around his neck, to which she attached a "cup" and dropped some coins into it (which the ump quickly deposited in his jeans).

The mothers, being younger and far more agile than the teachers, won the contest by a score of 24-5. Evelyn Thorne was high scorer for the winners and Lady Bird Johnson was high scorer for the teachers.

E. L. Neville To Get Honor This Week

E. L. Neville, leading local educator and former head of the Monroe city school system, will be honored at special ceremonies Thursday in the school which bears his name.

The P.-T. A. of Neville High School, sponsors of the celebration, will present a portrait of the educator to the school. Leading local figures in public and church life and in the field of education will talk briefly, and the Neville band and glee club will entertain.

The highlight of the evening will be the unveiling of the portrait by Bobby and Ann Shafro, Neville's grandchildren.

Following the invocation which opens the program, Rev. E. K. Means will discuss "The Gift of Greatness." President Warren Taylor of the Monroe City School Board, will talk on Neville's role as an educational leader and co-worker, and J. M. Boyet, superintendent of the city schools, will speak on the past, present and future of the Monroe schools.

Miss Julia Wossman, retired principal of the Barkdull Faulk Grammar School, will conclude the speeches with a talk entitled "Our Democratic Leader."

Following the program, the P.-T. A. will hold a short "social hour."

France To Pick New Assembly

Paris, May 12.—(AP)—France will choose a new national assembly Sunday, June 17, under a new election law rigged to cut the strength of the Communists, now her largest single party.

The cabinet fixed the date today. It acted a few hours after parliament completed approval of a bill to end the life of the present assembly July 4.

The council of the Republic, the advisory upper house, endorsed the bill 278 to 35. The assembly itself had approved 362 to 219.

About 24,600,000 voters are eligible for the election. All 621 seats of the assembly will be filled.

Marshall Sees Threat To Japan

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Secretary Marshall said today he feels there is "a great threat to Japan" from Russia's build up of forces in the Far East.

"It was that reason in particular," he told senators, "that cause me to exercise considerable pressure to have the two divisions of the National Guard sent out to Hokkaido, General MacArthur had asked for four divisions at an earlier period when there were none available."

Marshall was testifying at senate hearings on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's dismissal. Senator Flinders (R-Vt.) had questioned him about his testimony earlier this week that Russia recently has been building up its forces in Sakhalin and in the vicinity of Vladivostok, Port Arthur and Carient.

Hokkaido is the northern most island in the Japanese chain. Sakhalin is a Soviet island near Hokkaido.

Marshall said his own fear was "very great that our hazard was there, and we should terminate it as quickly as we could do it."

At that point the censor knocked out 20 words of Marshall's testimony.

CHURCH MEET IS SCHEDULED HERE

1951 Annual Convention Of State Christian Churches Begins Friday

The 1951 annual convention of Louisiana Christian Churches will be held in Monroe May 18, 19, and 20, announced R. T. Watson, pastor of the local First Christian Church, who will act as host pastor.

Officers of the group are Rev. Russell C. Brown, president; Mrs. J. K. Butler, secretary; H. E. Cherry, Sr., state treasurer; T. E. Sturgeon, local treasurer.

The preliminary meetings will get underway at 10 a.m. Thursday and will be followed Friday with the opening of the main program at 2 p.m. A fellowship supper will be held for the convention delegates at 6 p.m. in the Virginia Hotel. The entire afternoon program will be presided over by Rev. Russell C. Brown.

The night program, which will begin at 7:30 p.m., will be presided over by Rev. R. T. Watson and will last until 9:10 p.m.

The Saturday program will begin at 9 a.m. with Mrs. F. W. Reimers, presiding. The convention luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m. in the Virginia Hotel with Church Smiley serving as guest speaker.

The second session will begin at 2 o'clock and will be followed by a convention tea and banquets for the youth, women, and men in the Virginia at 6 o'clock.

Saturday night session will get underway at 8 o'clock with Miss Betty Jo Walker, presiding.

The three day convention will end Sunday at 12 o'clock after communion services.

DEMOCRATS FACE

influential Republicans the presidential nomination race still remains between Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander of the North Atlantic defense forces. Eisenhower has said he isn't a candidate but his name had been mentioned in speculation about both the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Representing different viewpoints, Rep. Scott (R-Pa.), former GOP national chairman, and Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts, chairman of the party's finance committee, said in separate interviews they regard the presidential contest as lying between Taft and Eisenhower. However, both said there is a possibility some other candidate may make a challenging bid in the next year.

Halleck's caution against linking the Republicans too directly with MacArthur apparently was not shared by Rep. O. K. Armstrong (R-Mo.).

Just back from a visit to the Far East, Armstrong told the delegates that he thinks the party should get behind MacArthur's proposals to blockade China, bomb Manchurian bases and use Chinese Nationalist troops.

Halleck also approved use of the Chinese Nationalists as a separate issue, asserting that it doesn't make sense not to accept such aid.

Armstrong told the committee members that when he was on Formosa he was shown a Chinese Nationalist intelligence report indicating that Russia is building an atomic bomb plant in northwest China.

He said the materials for this plant had been sold to Red China "by our free nation allies" and demanded that China be blockaded.

Armstrong suggested the Republicans adopt this slogan for 1952:

"Tired of war? Vote Republican."

Halleck said the Republicans must let nobody forget how the Korean war came about.

"We are in it because of the greatest mismanagement and miscalculation of any great nation in all times," he declared.

"No one yet can foresee the outcome of the venture in Korea," he said in an address, "but in November of 1952 the wretched story of its background, inception and half-hearted prosecution will remain a great issue pointing out the glaring errors and tragic failure of the Truman administration."

"It will still be an issue involving the administration's record of coddling Communist and abetting their rise to power on the continent of Asia."

Halleck condemned what he called "intemperate outbursts from the White House," adding these were climaxed by "the disgraceful manner in which one of the greatest military leaders was relieved of his command—relieved by an ill-tempered executive order issued in the dead of night."

"Surely," he said, "the very lack of stature of this little-minded administration is an issue now which will remain with us in the months ahead."

Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio) appealed to Republican women to launch a crusade for "clean government," adding that an "insistent demand" for reforms "is rising like a ground swell from every corner of the land."

Joseph Farrington, delegate from Hawaii to congress, told the committee members that if the whole nation had suffered the same rate of casualties in Korea as had Hawaii the toll of Americans now would have reached 200,000 instead of approximately 70,000.

Some of them we passed over without even considering."

Among others mentioned as potential candidates for governor, he said, were U. S. Rep. Hale Boggs of New Orleans, Register of State Lands Lucille May Grace, District Judge Carlos Spant of Baton Rouge and James McLemore, Alexandria cattleman.

"Boggs was found not acceptable and the others passed over," he said.

Sitting in on the caucus were several Baton Rouge officials, some of whom held state office during the administration of former Gov. Jimmy Davis, lawyers and businessmen.

They included City Councilmen Elton Murphy, Richard Cadwallader and Henry Louis Cahn; Police Chief Fred Parker; District Attorney Fred LeBlanc, who was Gov. Davis' attorney general; W. D. Atkins, superintendent of state police under Gov. Davis and now an assistant district attorney here; Allison Kolb, a candidate for state auditor on Kennon's 1948 ticket; Emilio Greenleaf, district campaign manager for Malcolm LaFargue of Shreveport when LaFargue unsuccessfully opposed Sen. Long recently, and former State Rep. Bonnie Baker. All are from Baton Rouge.

State elections are nearly a year away, but two candidates already have formally announced for governor and two for lieutenant governor.

Miss Grace and Lt. Gov. William Dodd each have issued statements saying they will seek the governorship. Gov. Long, who can not succeed himself, says he will run for lieutenant governor. Mayor Leon Gary of Houma announced his candidacy today for lieutenant governor, endorsing Dodd's bid for the top post.

Gov. Long insists he will not be the aggressor, we were at one support Dodd, but Dodd's retort is that each is a part of the state administration with a voice in its actions. Dodd and Long, apparently split, have been carrying on a verbal feud for months.

Dozens of other names have been tossed about in political circles as potential candidates for governor and other state offices.

Party primaries are scheduled Jan. 15, 1952. In one-party Louisiana, the Democratic nomination actually decides the officeholder. General elections, a few weeks later, are mere routine.

Other information received Saturday from Selective Service Headquarters gave the status of students already in college. To be eligible for deferment, present undergraduates must either have a certain scholastic rating or a score of 70 or more on the college qualification test.

committees are inquiring into the whole momentous issue.

Marshall took the witness chair Monday and in the past six days an estimated 200,000 words have entered the official record. When he finished today, his voice was faltering. He will resume at 9 a. m. EST.

Senator Long (D-La.) posed to Marshall the "great shadowing inquest" whether this country and its allies could win a war with Russia if it started now. Marshall replied:

"I don't want to talk about it on the record, and I would rather hesitate to talk about it off the record."

The official text, released after censorship, bore no evidence that Marshall was pressed to give his views even off the record.

But he did say at another point that the advantage and aggressor gains by launching a surprise attack is outweighed in the long run by "a much greater disadvantage."

time attempting to destroy the north Korean government as an aggressor, but we are not trying to destroy the Chinese Communist government, as a —

"We are trying to destroy the north Korean army, and pacify Korea," Marshall interrupted.

As for possible war with Russia, Long said: "Of course what we are hopeful of is that we will be able to prevent a war; that sooner or later we will be able to work it out without any war at all—that is our real objective."

"That is correct," Marshall told him.

Marshall declared that Moscow could make the Chinese Reds call off their aggression "in a moment" if it desired—and that the Chinese couldn't fight without the direct support of the Russians.

Questioned by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) Marshall said the bulk of Red China's war material is coming from Russia. And he added: "The Chinese Communist forces would be utterly unable to maintain themselves without a very direct support by the Soviet government."

He testified he believes the United Nations Allies now are contributing an increased number of troops to the Korean fight and "I think we have good prospects for further increases."

Previous testimony has indicated the U. N. members have about 30,000 troops in Korea while the United States may have some 350,000 in the entire theater. But censors deleted about 80 words of Marshall's remarks after he spoke of the prospect of troop increases.

Marshall repeated that he feared the program proposed by General Douglas MacArthur to widen the war against Red China with bombing, blockade and use of Chinese Nationalist troops — would risk a third world war.

Senator Stennis (D-Miss.) said: "Well, it boils down, after all, in a very broad way to the question of what will Russia do? Or what is going to be her position? That is the main argument, and that is where the real differences of opinion come about, is it not, general?"

Marshall replied: "In general, yes. I think we feel that our great opponent is the Soviet Union."

Earlier, he insisted there is greater danger of Russia going to war in Asia than in Europe.

Marshall's reference to Russia as "our real opponent" differed sharply with the testimony of MacArthur who insisted that communism everywhere — not just Russia — is the real enemy.

Senator Fulbright (D - Ark.) touched on this issue by saying: "You do not look upon this as sort of a crusade against communism everywhere and in any form; but it is because it is an aggressive force, and has taken on the pose of the Russian state, is what concerns you?"

"Yes, sir," Marshall replied. He agreed with Fulbright that Yugoslavia's Communist government can get American aid because Tito regime does not take orders from Moscow.

Fulbright said: "What we are really concerned about is the threatening force of arms directed by Moscow, is that correct?"

Marshall said: "That is correct, with the results that would follow." And then Marshall indicated that the United States might not insist on unconditional surrender as the basis for a settlement of the Korean struggle.

Fulbright referred to MacArthur's statement that there is no substitute for victory. Then he added that the unconditional defeat of Japan and Germany had not been "entirely satisfactory."

"So it looks as if we are just mule train west of the road was blasted by artillery fire.

More than 1,700 Reds were killed or wounded in ground action Saturday, Eighth army reported.

Allied planes accounted for others. In Washington, U. S. air force headquarters said its planes have inflicted 108,000 Red casualties from the start of the war through May 9.

The Red thrust across the Choyang near Chunchon was spearheaded by about 1,000 Reds employing mortars and automatic weapons.

Allied artillery hammered at an estimated division of Chinese Reds also reported south of the Choyang and east of Chunchon. Two north Korean regiments were farther east near Inje.

In the west, the Reds laboriously hauled heavy artillery into positions some 20 miles or less north of Seoul. That sector was relatively quiet Saturday, however.

Clouds of smoke from smudge pots and burning timbers rose over Red concentrations all along the war front. It was an old device to conceal preparations for an expected new Communist general attack.

Allied warplanes darted through the smoke screen, however, to slash at troop concentrations, mule pack trains and heavy movements by trucks, motorcycles and oxen carts.

Through the haze, Allied pilots reported Communist troops moving by two and spread out for hinterland.

The Reds marched about 50 yards apart to present more difficult targets for strafing Allied planes.

They were headed south and east from the Communist collecting points above Hwachon, 15 miles north of Chunchon, the pilots said.

Chunchon, now a no-man's town eight miles south of the 38th parallel and 45 miles northeast of Seoul, controls rail and road networks radiating through Korea's mountainous center.

There was no indication when or where the Reds would strike next. The Chinese usually move their striking force and supporting units to within one day's march of the front. When the present buildup movement stops, a renewed Red assault may quickly follow.

The main movement behind the Red front Saturday was to the east above Chunchon. Red forces crammed convoys of trucks and motorcycles from Hwachon toward Yangang, the eastern tip of the big Hwachon reservoir — third largest in all Korea.

An Allied officer told A. P. Correspondent Jim Becker that the Reds appeared to be using the same tactics which preceded their April 22 offensive.

"Two days before they hit us we saw quite a few of them," the officer said. "The day before they struck, we couldn't find any. Then the attack came."

That attack was shattered in less than a week, with Red casualties estimated at 75,000—about one-fourth of the 300,000 men they used.

On the western front, the U. S. eighth army communique Saturday night told of Communist concentrations "including artillery and pack trains" hit by Allied air and artillery north-northwest of Uijongbu. American patrols above Uijongbu, which is 11 miles north of Seoul, reported about 200 Reds and an unknown number of artillery pieces in the area. Censorship concealed the exact location.

Patrols were active in the Puyong and Kapyong areas, 15 to 32 miles northeast of Seoul, where other Red concentrations have been spotted.

A dozen U. S. F-86 sabre jets tangled briefly with 16 Russian-built MIGs some 30 miles south-east of the Yalu river boundary Saturday. One MIG was damaged while the rest streaked for home. All of the sabres returned without damage, the air force said.

Other fifth air force fighters and light bombers flew 612 sorties Saturday and claimed 400 Reds killed or wounded. The eighth army estimated enemy casualties Friday were 850 dead or wounded.

little old lady who founded Mother's Day 42 years ago.

Miss Jarvis died Nov. 24, 1849, at West Chester, Pa., sanitarium after six years of illness. During her last illness, Miss Jarvis asked a friend, Maude O. Hickman, to take over her work as president of Mother's Day International Association, Inc.

Miss Hickman has done just that. This year, as she has done annually in the past, she wrote the governor of all 48 states urging them to proclaim the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day, a day set apart for honoring America's mothers.

This year, the governor of every state but South Carolina has advised her such a proclamation has been issued.

Miss Hickman will lead the annual memorial services at Miss Jarvis' grave Sunday for the third time. A wreath of white carnations will be placed on the grave.

Out of an unnumbered army of unselfish, devoted mothers of the nation, each year one is designated the "American Mother" and in this selection all motherhood is glorified through a typical case.

The "American Mother of 1951" this time is Mrs. Mary T. Martin Sloop, 77, Crossmore, N. C., who as a physician has ministered to the children of the mountain country.

In addition to her professional services among children, Dr. Sloop is founder of a school for underprivileged youth and is a leader in civic betterment such as good roads, improved farming methods, religious tolerance and vocational training.

It is stated that more than 5,000 letters were received by the committee making the selection of the mother of the year and all of these advanced the claim for honor of Dr. Mary Sloop. It seems that she well merits all honors that can be paid to her as an exceptional mother and civic leader.

4-H Club members from Ouachita parish are looking forward to a wholesome good time at summer camp for four days starting June 11.

If club members are interested in attending camp it will be necessary for each to prepare a record of what they have done in their project work. The registration fee, insurance and transportation will be $6.25.

Those who attended Achievement Day and desire to go to camp are instructed to sign up at the agricultural building in West Monroe, Saturday, June 2. There registration is to start at 8 a. m. and the first 72 club members with records and $6.25 pay camp cost, will be the ones who will attend.

With sincere regret, we are forced to announce that from all pulpits of Baptist churches in this parish this morning, there will be read announcement that the executive board of the Ouachita parish association recommended by the steering committee is terminating the northeast Louisiana Baptist hospital project at this time. Appreciation is expressed for the support accorded to the campaign and gifts already made will be returned to donors.

Baptists launched the drive responding to a mighty flood of spontaneous and encouraging comments from people in all walks of life.

cause the financial support has not been sufficient to carry on the project. For a project of such huge proportions—200 beds, or at least two million dollars—several sizeable gifts would be essential. These must be the backbone of support. Baptist churches in themselves cannot provide such large gifts without curtailing for several years, and to a wholly unjustifiable degree, their receipts for budget expenses. This means that the sizable donations must come from other interested sources. Such large gifts were not received.

In terminating the project Baptists leave the door open for such future time when such a drive would be successful.

The William Watson family reunion will be held at Port Vincent, La. on Amite river, Watson landing approximately 25 miles east of Baton Rouge, Sunday, June 10 at 10 a. m.

There are over 1,000 descendants of the family scattered over the United States.

Anyone who is a descendant of William Watson, who came to Louisiana in 1819 from north Georgia, is invited to attend the reunion.

M. E. Dupont, 801 Alabama, a direct descendant, urged all in north Louisiana who are connected with the family to join in the reunion and meet the hundreds of kindred they didn't know existed.

United States through regular trade channels.

One influential newspaper, the British-controlled statesman, headlined the Russian move and gave secondary position to India's acceptance of United States terms.

The same attitude was reflected in other parts of the Indian press, and in the conversations of Indian officials, leaders and plain citizens.

For weeks, Indians have been viewing with growing impatience reports from Washington on the ups and downs of proposals for a grant or loan to India. It is a $190,000,000 project.

An important segment of Indian opinion, wavering between east and west, swung further toward the Russian camp when Nehru announced Russia already was starting the 50,000 tons without waiting for the conclusion of negotiations on the terms.

U. S. Loses More Planes Than Reds

Washington, May 12. (AP)—The U. S. air force has lost 212 planes in Korea while the Communists were losing 149.

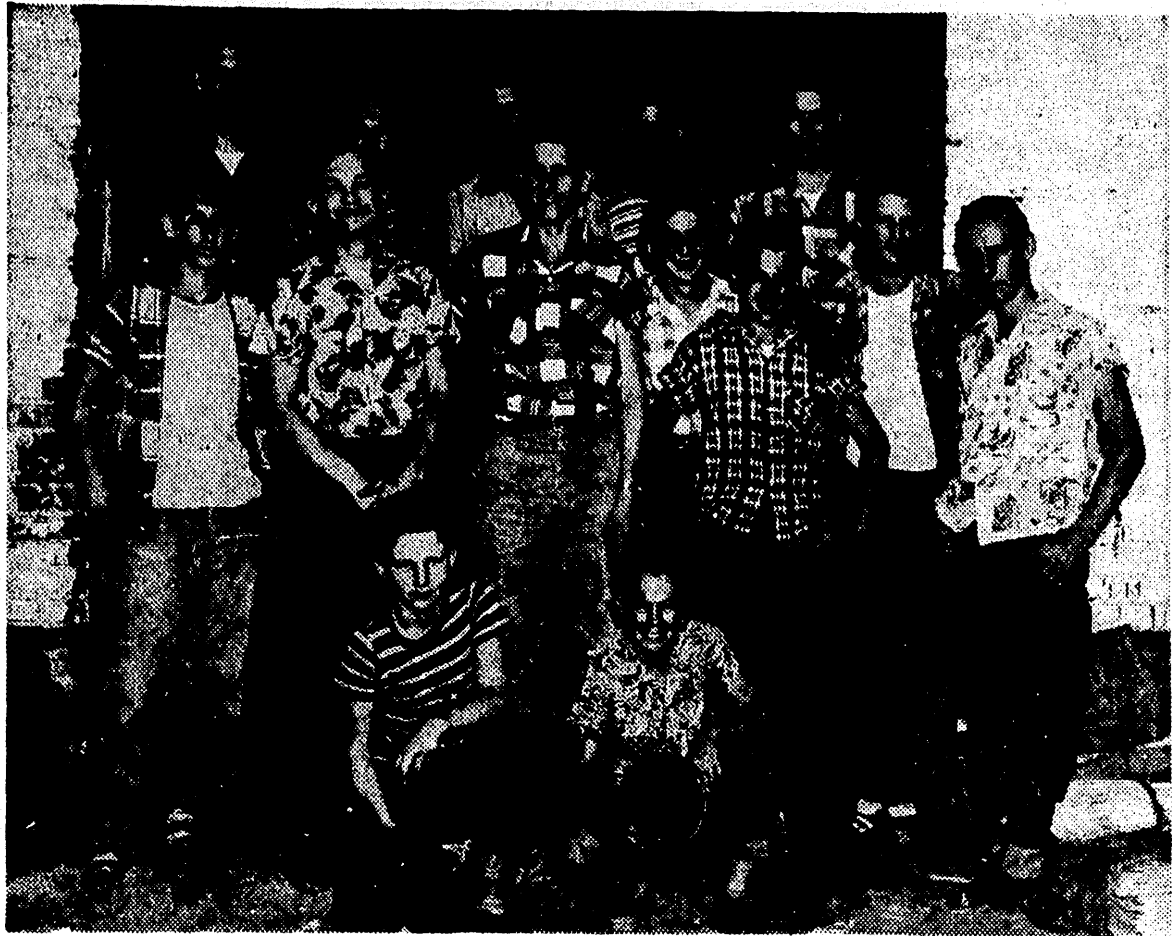

In making these figures public today, the air force offered no explanation. However, the American aircraft have been used constantly in support of ground forces and in bombing missions to enemy held areas guarded by anti-aircraft guns.

On the other hand, the U. S. air force has had difficulty in locating enemy planes to destroy. In the first few weeks of the war, the original North Korean Communist air force was wiped out. Since Communist China entered the war she has chosen to base her planes safely in Manchuria, sending them out only on occasional sallies close to the Yalu river boundary.

The plane loss figures were issued at a news conference by Lt. Gen. Otto Weyand. He recently returned from his post of deputy commander of Far East air forces (F. E. A. F.) to become deputy commander of the tactical air force with headquarters at Langley Field, Va.

PAPER WORKERS TO ASK BOOST

Negotiations To Start For Estimated 47,000 Employees In 11 States

Mobile, Ala., May 12. — Wage increases and other benefits for an estimated 47,000 southern paper and pulp mill workers will be sought in 1951 negotiations which got started next week. The goals were set out at the annual convention here of the Southern Association of Pulp and Paper Industry Unions, which represents A. F. L. unions in 11 southern states. The amount of the increase to be sought was not specified, but delegates mentioned 15 to 20 cents an hour in floor discussions. First negotiations will start here Monday with the Southern Kraft Division of International Paper Company, which usually sets the pattern in the south. Earlier the approximately 150 delegates heard union speakers predict that demands for paper and industry income would reach an all time high this year. The association also voted to seek these additional benefits in new contracts. An extension of pension plans to plants which do not have them; seven days accumulated sick leave benefits; uniform number of holidays throughout the industry; and seven days advance notice for layoffs. Any wage increases worked out must be approved by the wage stabilization board. The present average hourly rate in the industry, excluding overtime, is $1.46 an hour.

Carrier Boys Will Promote Sale of Bonds

The U. S. treasury's first defense bond sales promotional campaign in the national emergency will be brought to the doors of local newspaper subscribers by forty city carrier-boys of the Morning World and News Star, H. B. Murdoch, circulation manager announced today. During the week of May 14, the peaceful streets and quiet homes of our community will become a hot arena for ambitious young business men, who will be participating in what is believed to be the largest volunteer door-to-door effort in recent history. All over the nation more than half million carrier-salesmen will join in the campaign under the supervision of the United States treasury and sponsored by the International Circulation Managers Association. Twenty-five million pledge forms, delivered into the hands of the American family, will bring a message of patriotic saving into the homes of almost every newspaper subscriber. Considered an outstanding example of the spirit and patriotism of America's youth in the national emergency, this is the biggest job the newspaperboys have undertaken to do for the treasury department since the war stamp sale program during World War II. Mr. Murdoch stated that "It is hoped the campaign will be of inestimable help in strengthening both the nation's thrift habits and defense preparations." Bobby Mitchell, president of the local carriers club and Jimmy Gammill, vice-president, pledged their organizations whole hearted support with a joint statement. "We are just two of a half million boys who have been named as U. S. defense bond sales agent for the spring bond drive. We understand that the American newspaper-boys have already established an outstanding record of national service to their government and what we do in this program will add another important chapter to the newspaperboy story." A special feature of this all out program to bring a message from your treasury department, is the fact that it will be conducted during celebration of Armed Forces Week May 14-19. The local carrier-salesmen will deliver ten thousand pledge forms with the Monday evening, May 14, issue of the News Star. The local radio stations will support the treasury department and the newsboys with spot announcements on their endeavor, as a part of their special services.

Big Man Invades Radio Station, Chokes Announcer

Winter Haven, Fla., May 12. — A six-foot, 300-pound man forced radio station WSR off the air for 20 minutes today after choking an announcer and declaring he wanted to deliver a message to the world. The intruder choked announcer Dick March and twisted the arm of Chief Engineer Orden Craig. They quieted him by guiding him into an unused studio and permitting him to shout into a dead microphone. Sheriff Hagan Parrish identified the big intruder as Harold Butler. He is being held at Bartow for observation. Dick Eyrich of WSR reported Butler rode to the station at 7:30 a.m. on a bicycle. During the melee, a woman listener, Mrs. Leroy Willis of Winter Haven, telephoned the station to request a musical number. She overheard March talking with the man and telephoned police. Sheriff Parrish and a deputy found the man shouting into the dead microphone. They talked him into leaving the station. Outside he jumped on his bicycle and sped away. The sheriff chased him and took him into custody in downtown Winter Haven. TO MARRY 'GRANDMOTHER' Hague Sask., May 12. — P. WALLACE DENIES MARSHALL CHARGE

Says He Did Not Discuss Bringing Red China Into Nationalist Government

South Salem, N.Y., — Former Vice President Henry Wallace denied last night he discussed bringing Communists into the Chinese Nationalist government during conversations he had with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek in 1944. He took sharp issue with the agreement voiced yesterday in Washington by Secretary of Defense Marshall and Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), that a 1949 United States "white paper" (official document) on China indicated he had suggested Chinese Communists be taken into the Chiang (Nationalist) government "as early as 1944."

At senate hearings on the ouster of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Knowland quoted from the "white paper," released in 1949. Wallace had been sent to China by President Roosevelt. Knowland quoted the document as saying Wallace told Chiang that Mr. Roosevelt had indicated if the Nationalists and Communists couldn't get together they might call in a friend—and had indicated that he (Roosevelt) might be that friend.

In his statement issued here last night, Wallace said: "Roosevelt was not interested in making over the Chinese government. What he was interested in was seeing the Chinese from all types of political faiths doing a good job of fighting the Japanese." Wallace said no specific agreement of any kind was "indicated" by either the president or Wallace.

"The president was... interested in a strong, democratic China," Wallace said, "and... wanted all differences between China and Russia settled before the war came to an end."

Knowland said yesterday it appeared that "through the voice of Vice President Wallace" Chiang was being pressured to come to some agreements with Russia.

Wallace quoted a letter he said Mr. Roosevelt had written Chiang just after Wallace's four-day talk with the Nationalist chief. In the letter, Roosevelt said he welcomed the indication given him by Wallace of Chiang's desire "for improved relations between the U.S.S.R. and China."

"It occurs to me," the letter continued, "that any such conference (between China and Russia) would be greatly facilitated if a working arrangement had been reached beforehand between the Chinese government and the Chinese Communists."

Wallace said he then recommended to Mr. Roosevelt, at Chiang's suggestion, that "an American officer of the highest caliber" be sent to China as a personal representative between Chiang and the president. He mentioned Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer as a possible candidate.

Subsequently, Wedemeyer did go to China, as commanding general of the China theatre. Then in July, 1947, after having returned to this country, he was sent back by President Truman on a six-weeks fact-finding study. The result of that study became the long secret "Wedemeyer report," portions of which were made public only 10 days ago, in connection with the senate hearings.

MERCY FLIGHT

LT. JOHN R. GOODLETT

From Travis Air Force Base, California, a continental division air evacuation crew recently completed one of the longest mercy flights in history. It was a fight against 100 m.p.h. winds from Alaska to the east coast of the United States. A picked medical air-evacuation crew from the 173rd air transport squadron boarded a specially equipped C-54 "Skymaster" and Lt. John R. Goodlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Goodlett, Trenton street, West Monroe, nosed the giant mercy ship into the sky on the first leg of the 7200 mile uphill race against the killer, bulbar poliomyelitis.

The victim was a 22-year-old air force wife and mother of two, Mrs. Hattie B. Crumpacker, who was with her husband stationed at Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, a far northern outpost. Soon after being stricken with the dreaded disease it was known that she had to be transported to the Walter Reed Hospital, in Washington, D. C., so the air transport group was notified to prepare for the intra-continental mercy mission.

When Mrs. Crumpacker had passed the period of contagion and the medical staff attending her were satisfied with her progress, the call for the air-evacuation plane was put on the TWX and the MATS crew was given the final word before the take-off.

Just before touching down at McChord for arctic equipment, the crew got a taste of the bad weather they would have to fight all the way to the final destination. Landing at Elmendorf AFB, the plane was met by air force doctors stationed there and final preparations for the historic flight were made. At 2:45 p.m. the next day the weather and the patient's condition permitted the aircraft's take-off and Mrs. Crumpacker, accompanied by her husband, was on her way to Walter Reed.

Down the Alaskan coast the winds had reversed from the previous day, but their 100 m.p.h. tempo had not decreased. At McChord, a check with weather, during the servicing of the aircraft gave no indication of a let-up and precluded any hopes of a non-stop flight across Canada and into Washington, D. C.

In spite of extreme turbulence, the two flight nurses, the flight surgeon and the four air-evac technicians spent 28 hours in air and on ground in constant attendance upon Mrs. Crumpacker.

Because of the heavy headwinds it was necessary again to service the ship, this time at Lincoln, Nebraska. This was done within about an hour and then the "Skymaster" with its iron-lung patient and mercy crew was on the last leg of the flight. The nation's capitol was sighted at 10:13 p.m. and 12 minutes later the aircraft taxied up to the ramp where were waiting, ambulances, newsmen, photographers and many people who knew of the flight.

The ship's crew consisted of seven men and the medical technicians numbered seven. After a short crew rest, the Continental Division C-54 nosed across the continent toward Travis AFB and home after 53 flying hours and 11,000 miles the mission was done and the tired fliers were back at base.

During World War Two Lt. Goodlett served with the 401st B-17 bomb group. He won citations for "meritorious achievement while participating in a number of combat bombardment missions over Germany and Nazi-held territory." After the war he flew the famous Berlin air lift seven months. During the past few months he has been flying our Korean wounded boys to U. S. army hospitals. He lives in Vallejo, California near Fairfield-Suisun AFB, to which he is attached. His family is with him. His wife is Beverly Peavy Goodlett and they have two sons, Johnny and Ronny.

Convict Clergyman In Wife's Slaying

Rochester, N. Y., May 12. — An Episcopal clergyman, who gambled his life by appealing for a second trial, was convicted today of first-degree murder for the slaying of his wife. Death in the electric chair is the mandatory penalty.

The Rev. George P. Hetenyi, 41, still wearing clerical attire, glanced at the ceiling but said nothing when a jury announced its verdict in Monroe county court after five and one half hours of deliberation. He will be sentenced May 28.

Later in his cell, he wept as he spoke to his mother, Mrs. Caroline Hetenyi, and he removed his clerical collar.

Hetenyi was accused of shooting his wife, Jean Gareis Hetenyi, 24, and throwing her body in the Genesee river here April 22, 1949.

Charlemagne so prized his leather-soled shoes that he slept with them under his pillow to prevent their being stolen.

Atomic Oven Provides New Steps In Cancer Treatment

Upton, N. Y., May 12. — Two new steps in cancer treatment with the potent atomic oven at Brookhaven National Laboratory were disclosed today.

One is production of a new kind of radioactive iodine that may hit harder and more safely at thyroid gland cancer, and thyroid cancer that has spread through the body.

This iodine gives off X-rays to hit cancer cells. But it lives or lasts such a short time there is less chance of the rays' damaging healthy body cells.

Second was the disclosure that three humans now have lain atop the huge atomic oven for treatment of brain cancers by bombardment with atomic bullets coming from the chain reaction going on inside.

Two of them — both men — still are alive after treatments two months ago. The first patient, a woman, has since died. But the results "are sufficiently hopeful to continue studying the method," said Dr. D. D. Van Slyke of Brookhaven.

The bullets are neutrons, produced by fabulous billions inside the oven. They create radioactive rays in the brain cancer. An injection of boron is given first, and much of it concentrates in the cancer. The neutron bullets make the boron radioactive, to emit cancer-damaging rays.

Both developments were announced as the veil of secrecy was removed from one great white face of the atomic pile or oven to permit more scientists to use it for pea fui research.

In England, 400,000 letters are posted daily with either a wrong address or none at all.

TWO SOFTBALL CIRCUITS UNITE

City And Industrial Leagues
Welded Into Eight-Team
Loop

Pumping new life into two fading softball leagues. Recreation Director Jack Hesketh has combined five teams from Monroe's oldest loop, the City League, with three from the partially-organized Industrial League to perpetuate the City League.

Hesketh explained that two of the leagues would have been too weak. He felt that one solid organization would be better, and chose to keep the long-standing City League alive.

Teams entered are Southern Bell, Royal Feed and Seed, Post Office, News - Star, Cooperative Dairies, Three - Way Finance, Fairbanks and Gay Clothing.

With games every Monday and Thursday, the teams will start their season rolling May 21.

Draft calls have left a gaping hole in leagues operated by the recreation department. As the 18-year-olds left the Senior League last year, many who would ordinarily have moved up into the Industrial or City Leagues entered the service instead.

Aside from the loss of players to the armed service, Hesketh said that the recreation leagues are operating at a minimum cost since the outbreak of war.

"We had to cut expenses," Hesketh said, "and that made it harder to organize the remaining players."

As for the Industrial League, it was abandoned simply because membership is restricted. While City League players may be recruited from any source available, Industrial players must play on teams sponsored by the companies for which they work.

Choice of the City League means that more teams can be maintained by the recreation department.

Thermatomic, Louisiana Power and Light and United Gas teams, all active last year, are absent from the league this season. In their places are clubs sponsored by Fairbanks and the Royal Feed and Seed.

This will be the first venture into the softball sport for Royal Feed and Seed although they have formerly sponsored bowling teams.

Hesketh said that Sam Rubin, James McKay, Jack Nolan, Ed Whetstone, Alvin Fleming and Scotty Daniels have agreed to act as managers, and two others will be lined up before time for the season - opener.

Tulane, Tennessee Tie For Net Title

Gainesville, Fla., May 12.—Tulane and Tennessee wound up in a dead heat for the Southeastern Conference tennis championship here today.

Each team scored 24 points in the three-day tournament. It was the first time in conference history the meet was ended in a tie. The same two teams were knotted for second place last year with 23 points.

Vanderbilt came in third with 21 and defending champion Florida had 17.

Other scores: Alabama 7, Georgia Tech 4, L. S. U. 3, Georgia 2, Auburn 1 and Mississippi State none. Kentucky and Mississippi did not enter.

The key match of the finals play occurred when Harry Coonson of Vanderbilt came from behind a one-set deficit to defeat topseeded Walker Harris of Tulane. This enabled Phil Bartlett of Tennessee and two Tennessee doubles teams to annex victories that tied for the championship.

130 Boys Attend Little Loop Drill

One hundred and 30 boys reported for Little League baseball practice here yesterday afternoon, and two more drills are set for this week as the managers of the six clubs get their last looks at the boys in collective drills.

The kids, eight to 12 years of age, went through three hours of work yesterday on the Northeast State diamond. Tomorrow night the club managers will hold a special meeting at 7 o'clock at the Monroe recreation center.

Next group drills are slated for Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock and Saturday at 2 o'clock. A draft of players will be conducted by team managers in setting up the personnel of the teams later.

PINE BLUFF BLANKS MONROE BY 2-0 MARGIN

FELLHAUER BESTS ROGERS STEWART IN PITCHING DUEL

Sports And Judges Will Tangle In Double Header This Afternoon

Pine Bluff, Ark., May 12.—(Special)—The Pine Bluff Judges took some of the wind out of the sails of the high-flying Monroe Sports here tonight as Dick Fellhauer bested Rogers Stewart in a pitching duel to register his first win for the Judges, 2 to 0.

The Sports, who took two out of three games from the Judges in a recent series at Monroe, will meet the Louisiana club again in a double header here Sunday afternoon.

Two unearned runs in the sixth inning brought the Judges victory tonight.

Jim Clary reached first on a George Andrews error to start the sixth. Bob Sisk sacrificed him to second. Fellhauer grounded out to Carl Tucker at third, but Leon Waskz came through with the first hit off Stewart, a single into left field that drove Clary home with the first run. Marilyn Holtzapfel followed with a second straight single into center field, scoring Waskz from second where he had gone on the throw-in an effort to shut off Clary at the plate earlier.

Fred Boiko grounded out to John Jones at first to end the inning.

Although Fellhauer and Stewart were stingy with their base hits, neither finished the game. Stewart, tagged for only two hits in seven innings, was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth, Darwin Chisico, the no-hit no-run hurler of Thursday night against Pine Bluff at Monroe, finished for Stewart, giving up one more hit.

Fellhauer, after hurling a two-hitter, was relieved in the ninth by Jim Vaughn. Fellhauer's wildness could have cost him the game if the Sports had been able to bag a clutch hit or two. Monroe was given 15 passes to first and had 16 batters stranded to swell their league lead in this department.

REB SPIKEMEN WIN
University, Miss., May 12.—(Special)—The University of Mississippi defeated Mississippi State College, 8-2, today in their final Southeastern Conference baseball game of the season. It was Mississippi's fourth straight win over State—the first time that has happened since 1929.

Collecting 11 hits in 28 times at bat, the Indian slugger boasts a slick mark of .410 in 22 games for top honors at the plate. Gilbert barely nosed out Hugh Glaze, the batting lead of the Clarksdale second baseman and last week's leader, who dropped from .469 to .407.

Averages for the period ending Tuesday:

BIG EIGHT LOOP OPENERS TODAY

Sterlington, Ruston, DuBach Will Be Scenes Of League's First Games

Ruston, La., May 12.—(Special)—Six of the Big Eight teams will see action Sunday when the 1951 season gets under way. Minden will journey to Sterlington for their opening game and President Bloxom of Minden is in hopes of landing Harry Davis as manager for the Minden Red Birds and if so he will have one of the best shortstops in the league and a very popular player. Manager Giddens of Sterlington lost four of his stars to Uncle Sam but the old timer will have a fighting ball club ready for action Sunday.

Bernice, last years regular season champions, will open at DuBach. Bernice has practically the same team as last year with Glenn Post as manager while the DuBach team can always shake the bushes and round out a real ball club. The two Ruston teams, the Rebels and the Vols will give their premiere showing before the home town at Fraser Field Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Manager Huey Williams of the Rebels has played several exhibition games and his line up will include four men who have played six years in the Big Eight. John Williams, Wayne Williams, Racer Holster and Jack Beard. Manager Berry Hinton who has successfully come through three times as champion can be counted on to field a team for the Volunteers as he has a nucleus in the House of Hinton's as a starter. However, he will not be able to start his son, Dickie, as he will be playing with the Ruston Legion team. Opening ceremonies at Ruston will naturally include the throwing of the first ball by 93-year-old Uncle Ed Uchich, who is considered the father of baseball fans in north Louisiana. Invitation has been extended to Miss Patricia Brown, Miss Holiday in Dixie, to catch the first ball as she caught the prize in Shreveport recently.

Hodge will open at Farmerville Monday night and the main feature will be the presentation to the Farmerville club, the Fuller Trophy for having won the Shauhnagness play-off last season.

3 UNION TEAMS RAKE IN TITLES

Farmerville, Bernice, Marion Triumph; Three No-Hitters Are Pitches

Ruston, May 12.—(Special)—Three Union parish teams, Farmerville, Bernice and Marion emerged as champions in Class A, B and C in the annual North Louisiana Baseball tournament held at Louisiana Tech Friday and Saturday.

Farmerville defeated Ruston 7-3. Bernice whitewashed Doyle 10-0 and Marion downed Jamestown 13-8 to take home first-place rally trophies.

Three no-hit, no-run games were pitched in the tournament, establishing a record. On Friday, Wayne Thrash of Jamestown hurled a no-hitter against St. Joseph, winning 3-0.

On Saturday Raymond Taliferro of Winnieboro did not allow a single Batrop batsman to reach first base in hurling a no-hitter against Batrop and winning 3-0. Taliferro struck out 11 of 15 Batrop batters.

Mac McVicker, Marion, hurled a no-hitter against Hico Saturday, a game which Marion won, 3-0. Results of final-round games play Friday and Saturday were as follows:

Class A—Farmerville 9, Jonesboro-Hodge 3; Winnieboro 3, Batrop 0; Ruston 2, Rayville 0; Farmerville 2, Minden 0; Ruston 4, Winnieboro 2; Farmerville 1, Ruston 3.

Class B—Choudrant 4, Quitman 3; Bernice 2, Delhi 0; Bonita 3, Simsbury 0; Doyle 4, Calhoun 2; Bernice 7, Choudrant 2; Doyle 2, Bonita 0; Bernice 10, Doyle 0.

Class C—Jamestown 7, DuBach 1; Marion 5, Holly Ridge 1; Marion 13, Jamestown 8. Score by innings:

WEST MONROE OPENS SEASON

White Sox Face Mangham In First Northeast Game At Cloyd's Park

The West Monroe White Sox yank the lid off the Northeast Louisiana Baseball League season today in a game with Mangham starting at 2:30 o'clock in Cloyd's Park.

Managed by Third Baseman Johnnie Ballance, the Mangham club has played and lost one exhibition game to Rayville. The White Sox defeated Rayville and the Batrop Barons in exhibition tilts.

Ballance, who covered third base last year for Winnieboro, has been content to hold most of his pre-season workouts in home territory in preparation for the big opening game today.

However, the Mangham club was one of the first to enter the Northeast loop when it was organized early in April and has had plenty of time to drill.

Mose Boyles, president of the White Sox club, said last night that special arrangements for the opening game include gate awards to persons attending.

J. D. Brownlee, taking over as manager of the White Sox since former Manager Hal Willis resigned, will be banking heavily upon Pitchers Robert Bennett and "Lefty" Parker to pull through the game safely.

Bennett and Parker held the Batrop club two hits in an exhibition game here Tuesday night.

Brownlee announced the following tentative lineup: Harry D. Foster, field; Jack Paundus, second base; Billy Sanford, first base, "Red" Rawls or Archie Parker, right field; J. N. Foster, third base; Johnny Simpson, shortstop; Dan Pickens or Brownlee, catchers; Bennett or Parker, pitcher.

Today's Games
Oak Grove at Jagers Lane. Goodwill at Fiske Union. Nelson Bend at Big Creek.

Leonard Brumm, former Michigan athlete, is coaching the University of Wyoming hockey team.

Curfew Halts Bums, Braves In 5-5 Deadlock; Cards, Reds Divide Pair

Boston May 12.—(AP)—The Boston Braves and the Brooklyn Dodgers battled to a 5-5 tie tonight. The game was called at midnight because of a Sunday curfew law. The Braves had the man on first and two out in the 13th when the game was called.

ARIAS MAY PAY FOR TWO DEATHS

Investigate To Determine If Deposed Panamanian President To Blame

Panama, Panama, May 12.—(AP)—L. Nacion, the newspaper of Police Chief Jose Remon, said today the prosecuting attorney is investigating to see if deposed President Arnulfo Arias should be charged personally with the killing of two police officers.

Police Major Alfredo Gomez and Lt. Juan Flores were among 14 persons killed in rioting and in the battle that resulted in Arias being hauled from the presidential palace and lodged in jail Thursday.

Alcibiades Arosemena, 66, a soft-spoken and easy going dairy farmer, was elevated from the vice-presidency. He worked at his presidential tasks at his home today because the interior of the palace was wrecked in the battle between police and Arnulfistas (supporters of Arias).

Thousands lined the streets yesterday at a funeral for the two police officers, Gomez and Flores. La Nacion quoted an eyewitness as saying Arias invited them to a party on the second floor where his followers were entrenched, put his arm about Gomez's shoulders and treated him with great friendliness. The newspaper said shots were heard shortly afterward, and the officers' bodies were found upstairs.

The 50-year-old ex-president already is awaiting trial before the national assembly on a charge of violating his oath of office because of his attempt to abolish the 1948 constitution and substitute the 1941 constitution by a cabinet decree. At the same time he dissolved the assembly and put the higher courts under his personal control. It was the second time Arias had tried to restore the 1941 instrument. The 1941 constitution was written during his first one-year term as president to replace the charter of 1904 that was adopted in the year following Panama's independence.

The 1904 document provided for a four-year term for president and required constitutional amendments to be approved by two consecutive legislative assemblies so that one administration alone could not make any changes.

The jackrabbit, which derived its name from its long donkey-like ears, is not a rabbit but a hare.

BRIDES TO TAKE WEDDING VOWS SOON

BRIDE-ELECT—Miss Miriam Elaine Guynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Guynes, of Rayville, whose forthcoming marriage to Sidney Reech, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Reech, of Farmerville, is announced today. The wedding will take place June 23.

ENGAGED—Miss Laura Lee Overton, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Harry Joe Farrar, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Farrar, of Ruston, is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Overton, of West Monroe. The wedding will take place in June.

BRIDE-TO-BE—Miss Betty Lou Guy, who will become the bride of James Ulyse Douciere, Jr., of Shreveport, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Douciere, Sr., of Rayville, on May 15. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Guy, of Mansfield.

Miss Virginia Rose White To Wed Joseph Thomas Dupree, Jr.

Formal Announcement Of Engagement And Approaching Marriage Announced At Tea

Of interest to her friends is the announcement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Virginia Rose White, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Budd White, of Ruston, to Joseph Thomas Dupree, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas Dupree of New Orleans. The wedding will be solemnized at Trinity Methodist Church, Ruston, Saturday evening, June 2, at eight o'clock. The bride-elect's father will officiate at the ceremony, and she will be given in marriage by her uncle, C. T. Houston of Bogalusa, brother of her mother.

Miss White has asked her cousin, Mrs. Ray Bland of Nederland, Tex., to be matron of honor; and Miss Peggy Harris, Ruston, Miss Merrihelen Horneman, Plain Dealing, Miss Arla Jo Knause, Shreveport, Miss Shelby Meek, Monroe, and Miss Virginia Mitchell, Homer, to be bridesmaids. Miss Anita Pauline Sigler of Elizabeth, and Miss Nelva Jean Williams of Kinder will light the candles before the ceremony.

Sam Dupree will serve his twin brother as best man. Ushers will be Rusty Planchard, Jack Hallaron and Curtis Dupree, brother of the groom-elect, of New Orleans; Carl Corley of Ringold and Eddie Williams, the bride's cousin of Beaumont, Tex.

Miss White and Mr. Dupree are in attendance at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, and following a short honeymoon, they will return to Ruston where they will make their home at 510 Mayfield street for the present.

Formal announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage was made last Saturday at a lovely afternoon tea given by Mrs. G. W. Pomeroy at her home on North Trenton street, Ruston. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. W. F. Manning, Jr., and Mrs. R. R. Branton.

Throughout the house were attractive arrangements of spring flowers. Receiving with the hostess and Miss White were Mrs. C. B. White and Mrs. J. T. Dupree.

The bride-elect chose to wear for the occasion a dress of aqua nylon net over taffeta. Her corsage was of Dr. Van Fleet roses tied with pink satin and silver ribbons.

The refreshment table was laid with a drawn work linen cloth held in place at one end by a large colonial bouquet from which streamers of pink satin ribbon led to five smaller colonial bouquets. At the other end was a crystal punch bowl at which Mrs. Leon Manning and Mrs. Charles Gullatt presided, alternately. On the buffet pink tapers glowed from a crystal epergne amidst a pink floral arrangement.

The announcement was made in a unique way. At the entrance to the living room on an easel, which was draped with maroon velvet, was a large scroll printed in old English type. It was patterned after the reading of the Banns in English churches, giving the names of the bride and groom, their parents, place of residence, occupations, and the date, hour and place of the wedding.

Those assisting in the house party were Miss Virginia Mitchell, Miss Merrihelen Horneman, Miss Shelby Meek, Miss Arla Jo Knause, Miss Peggy Harris, Miss Louise Aycock, Mrs. A. W. Pomeroy of Bastrop and Mrs. Mary McQuaid.

Guests called during the hours from four to six.

Wet or green lumber should not be painted as paint does not adhere well to wet wood and is likely to peel off.

Mary Helen Sanford And David Andrews United In Marriage

Of interest to friends in this vicinity is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Mary Helen Sanford, daughter of Mrs. Virgil Tims of Quitman to Mr. David Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andrews of Quitman.

The lovely and impressive wedding ceremony took place in the Church of God Church of Pumpkin Center with the pastor, Rev. N. C. McNeal officiating in the double ring ceremony in the presence of only a few friends and relatives. These wedding rites were said at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 6.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Virgil Tims, and was becomingly attired in a white suit. Her blue sheer blouse, and blue halo hat with matching blue gloves completed her attire. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with pink gladioli and ferns.

Miss Doris Blalock rendered the pre and recessional music at the piano.

Those present for the wedding were: Rev. and Mrs. Junior Stagg, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andrews, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lee and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nash and Louise, Mrs. Doyle Ricks and Wilma, Mr. and Mrs.

Dale Ewing of Port Arthur; Miss Doris Blalock, Mrs. S. J. Sanders, Quitman, Mrs. W. A. Sanders and children, Sherwood, Joan, Linda and Johnnie Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Sandford of Bossier, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Sandford of Monroe.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are graduates of the Quitman High School and at the time of the wedding Mrs. Andrews was en route to the B. M. I. Business College in Monroe. They left immediately following the ceremony to make their home in Port Arthur, Tex., where Mr. Andrews is an

MIRO BOOK CLUB HEARS BOOK REVIEW BY MRS. TOM JETT

Members of the Miro Book Club met Monday afternoon for their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. R. L. Wood.

In the living room, where Mrs. Wood received, spring flowers formed an attractive floral note. Vases of iris, daisies and lilies in pastel colors were placed at intervals.

The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. B. L. Mulhern. Collect was said in unison and salute to the flag given. Roll was called and minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. D. M. Moore.

Mrs. B. L. Mulhern, acting program chairman, presented Mrs. W. G. Murphy, who gave two interesting articles on "Do We Need City Planning" from the New York Times magazine and House and Gardens.

Mrs. Tom Jett, known as one of Monroe's top ranking book reviewers, gave a splendid review of "Bride of Fortune" by Harriet T. Kane, a Louisiana author. She said in part:

"This book is a novel based on the life of Mrs. Thomas Jefferson. No woman in America lived a life like that of vivid Varina Howell Davis, the first lady of the confederacy, 'Queen of The Lost Cause.' Born an aristocrat in cotton rich Natchez on the Mississippi, she left her home at eighteen to face an uncertain future as the wife of an enigmatic country man, Jefferson Davis, and to embark on a swift, kaleidoscopic career such as she had never dreamed of.

At his side she rose to eminence in the turbulent years that brought war between North and South. She knew giddy triumph, the tinselled success of a great beauty, a triumphant woman of the world of Washington, D. C. She knew sudden ups and downs, defeat, sorrow, loss and retirement to her river plantation."

"Then again came a swift rise to rank higher than before, that of a cabinet wife, with the country's decisions being made all around her and a part for her in the making.

For a long time it seemed that the White House of Washington would be her eventual home. Again, a step downward and then up again to the rank of the confederacy's lustrous lady. Dazzling hours of a fugitive, her young children helpless around her, her husband facing death. In these hours she became a great personage, a human being fighting for survival and she won.

Above all, "Bride of Fortune" is the story of a woman in love, a portrait of a passionate, warm-hearted woman who never faltered in her devotion. For Varina and Jefferson Davis it was one long love affair."

Following the program the hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members present: Mrs. H. M. James, Mrs. A. S. Tidwell, Mrs. A. B. Myatt, Mrs. W. M. Greenwell, Mrs. J. W. Murphy, Mrs. W. G. Murphy, Mrs. Tom Jett, Mrs. C. R. Tidwell, Mrs. Rene McCord, Mrs. D. M. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Peters, Mrs. George Temple and Miss Juanita Porter and Mrs. B. L. Mulhern.

Miss Betty Lou Guy To Be Bride Of James Ulyse Douciere, Jr.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

To honor their members last week the girls of Troop 13 invited them to the troop where the Brownie Scouts held a model meeting to show what goes on in the troop. At previous meetings the girls had made Mothers' Day cards of their own designing, which they presented at this time, after which the patrol leaders served refreshments. Leaders who are helping the girls with these thoughtful activities are Mrs. J. H. Netherland and Mrs. Doyle Mosley.

We've heard of a number of trips taken by Brownie Scouts lately. Troop 40 reports a most informative trip to Cloverleaf Dairy, where the girls showed special interest in the filling of the milk cartons. Mrs. Andy Conaway and Mrs. R. W. Rogers are leaders of this troop, which is planning to move up into the Intermediate program soon.

Troop 34 visited the dairy, too, not so long ago, and more recently the Coca-Cola Bottling Company. These active Brownies are third-graders under the leadership of Mrs. H. V. Brady and Mrs. S. C. Strauss.

On a recent sunny Saturday three Brownie Scout troops, 36, 34, and 39 spent the day at the new Girl Scout troop camp. They cooked weiners on sticks and toasted marshmallows for lunch and then spent the afternoon exploring the surrounding territory. They found it ever so much fun to hike to the river (observing all the Girl Scout rules about hiking, of course) where they watched a fisherman bring in his catch and discovered a rope conveniently hanging where it would make a swing. The adults who accompanied the girls were Mrs. S. W. Jackson, Mrs. Tom Keller, Mrs. Ralph Brice, Mrs. J. T. Bragan, Mrs. J. B. Corder, Mrs. S. C. Strauss, Mrs. Chales Calderone, Mrs. Paul Hewitt.

Troop 9 finished their second class requirements at their last meeting. This means that they completed activities in each of eleven program fields. Nice going, troop 9! This Intermediate troop was organized just last fall with Mrs. W. B. Hilburn and Mrs. S. C. Matthews as leaders. They've already become enthusiastic about outdoor cooking — having learned about buddy burners and tin can cooking, they recently sampled the old tried-and-true Girl Scout recipe—squaw corn—and pronounced it to their liking, too.

Two weeks from today, girls and leaders and all friends of Scouting, we'll expect to see you at the new troop camp. Have you heard that Mr. J. G. Hicks of United Gas has had a flag pole erected at the camp? On Sunday, the 27th at 3:00 o'clock the girls will run up their own flag, Mr. L. B. Pettit, who has seen to the erection of the building, will formally turn over the keys to the camp committee, girls and troops and friends will bring gifts to the camp.

Bettye Ann Bettis Celebrates Sixth Birthday At Party

Bettye Ann Bettis celebrated her sixth birthday at a party given in her honor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bettis, 710 K Street.

Following several games which were played Bettye opened her many gifts. Refreshments of frosted drinks, sandwiches, and embossed birthday cake were then served. Miss Barbara Shroeder assisted in the serving duties.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Flora Middleton, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Dwight Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore, is announced today by her mother, Mrs. Audrey Middleton. The wedding will take place the early part of June.

NEWS FROM THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Today I want the patrons to think of the Ouachita Parish Public Library from an entirely new angle. That is "How can the library help me save money?" With the current high prices everyone wants to spend his money as wisely as possible. If you make use of the resources of the library, you will find a great many helps in this direction.

Have you ever used the "Consumer's Research Bulletin" or the "Consumer Reports"? These are two monthly publications which rate all sorts of products according to economy and durability. The library subscribes to both of these publications and will be glad to lend them to patrons. Let's take a look for a minute at the table of contents of the May issue of the "Consumer Reports." The first article is called "The 1951 Car Market" and is a review of all U. S. passenger automobiles. Any person planning to buy an automobile should read this article carefully and decide which car will meet his particular needs. In this same issue there is an article on tennis balls, one on methods of removing crab grass from a lawn, and an evaluation of electric hedge trimmers. There is also an excellent article explaining that there is a surplus of consumer goods on the market and that instead of a shortage to be feared, there is every chance of a deflation in the near future. There is also a page devoted to the new phonograph records. This is a sample of only one month's issue. Form the habit of using this resource of your library regularly.

Are you considering buying a set of encyclopedias for home use? If you are, please consult your parish librarian before buying a set. There are always unscrupulous agents who attempt to sell an inferior product. There are only four standard sets of encyclopedias on the market. If you buy any thing else you should know that you are getting a poor set of books. A telephone call can give you this information in a few minutes. A reputable firm will be glad to have you check with the library. Only an agent who knows that his product is substandard will object to your calling.

In this day of high food prices everyone is interested in any short cuts which will help to save money on food purchases. Such a book is a new addition to the library called "The Practical Book of Food Shopping" by Helen Hovey. This book contains invaluable advice about buying in ways to save money. Just one example is the fact that dried prunes are much cheaper than canned prunes and are just as nutritious. Another book which will be of inestimable help to young mothers is "Clothing for Children" by Henrietta Thompson. This book is concerned with the buying of children's clothes, rather than making them. It tells you how many clothes to buy for a child at a certain age, to be sure that he does not have large quantities left over that he has outgrown. It also gives brand names and other valuable information.

If you are planning to build a house and feel that the estimates given you by the contractor are too high, read the book "House Construction Costs" by George Underwood and be prepared to check on his figures.

There are numerous other ways the library can help you save money. Do you have some old furniture that you would like to refinish? There are several books that tell you just how to go about it. Are you interested in building cabinets or wall shelves for your home? There is a book at the library which gives you pictures, estimates, plans and instructions for building them. This is the season at which people are interested in building a patio, a barbecue pit, or some other adjunct for outdoor living. If you are one of this group, the library has several books just for you. They are: "How to Build Garden Structures," by Henry B. Awi, "Designs for Outdoor Living," by Margaret O. Goldsmith and "Home Mechanics Outdoor Handbook," by Reginald R. Hawkins.

After you have saved all this money, the library even has a delightful book which will tell you how to invest it. This book is "How to Lay a Nest Egg," by Edgar Scott, written by an investment counselor in language that anyone can understand.

Your library is eager to serve every citizen of Ouachita parish. If you are not a registered borrower, do not delay but come in as soon as possible. There are four branches of the library. The one in Monroe is located at 418 Jackson street. The West Monroe library is located at 106 Cypress street. The Bookmobile serves the rural people of the parish and the Carver branch which serves the Negro people is located at 116 North 10th street in Monroe. It is your library; use it.

Miss Edna Ruth White To Be June Bride Of Robert L. Massengill

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. White of Lake Charles announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Edna Ruth, to Robert Lamar Masengill, son of Mrs. G. I. Butler of this city. The marriage will be solemnized the first week in June.

Miss White is a graduate of Lake Charles high school and McNeese College. She is a February graduate of the Louisiana State University where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She is at present a member of the faculty of G. S. Colley elementary school in Lake Charles. Mr. Masengill graduated from Ouachita Parish High School and attended the University of New Mexico. He received his degree in geology from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He served overseas with the United States marines during World War II and is present is employed in Lak. Charles.

Miss Sue Turner Becomes Bride Of Calvin W. Perry

In a quiet and simple ceremony Miss Sue Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Turner of Lafayette, became the bride of Calvin W. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Perry, Sheridan, Arkansas, on April 21, with the Reverend Sampson officiating in the double-ring service.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. W. W. Wilkerson.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Elton Johnson, was lovely in a navy dress with accessories of navy and white. She carried a white Bible with a single orchid and white carnations with white satin streamers.

Miss Shirley McIntyre was the bride's only attendant. She was wearing a navy and white silk print with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

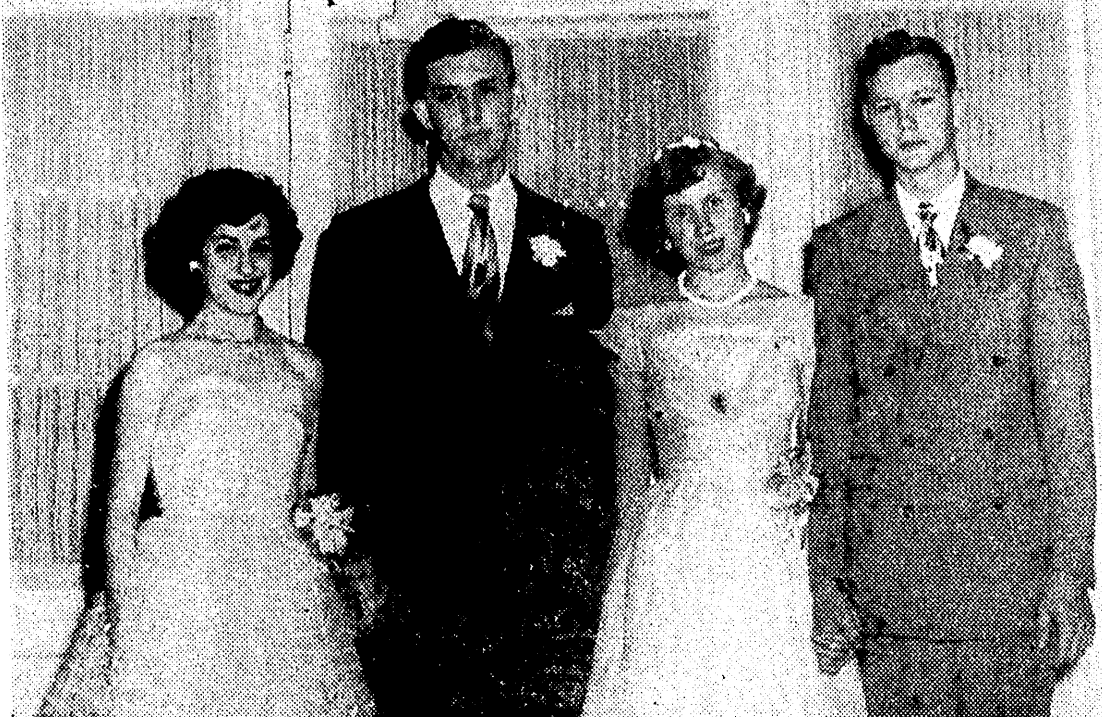

Charles Perry, Jr., served his brother as best man.

The bridal couple left on a wedding trip to Baton Rouge following the ceremony. They are now at home in El Dorado, Arkansas where the groom is employed.

The bride is a graduate of Linville High School and a local business college. She has been a resident of this city for the past five years. The groom is graduated from Shridan High School and the College of the Ozarks in Clarksville, Arkansas.

Top four industries, in terms of capital investment, are agriculture, railroads, public utilities, and petroleum.

Garden Suggestions For May Given By Mrs. Mildred Swift

"Here are some garden suggestions to keep you busy in May," states Mrs. Mildred G. Swift. "If you have not pruned spring flowering shrubs, such as spirea and flowering almond, do so at once, so the plants will have a long season to produce new wood for bloom next season. May is the time to make preparation for many fall flowers. Among the flowers to be planted in late spring for early fall bloom are chrysanthemums, dahlias, tithonia, toenia, Michaelmas Daisy, African Golden Daisy and verbena. Watch roses and other plants for aphids (plant lice). They may be controlled by spraying with nicotine sulphate soap and water or by dusting with rotenone dust."

"If you did not divide your chrysanthemum clumps and set out the new shoots the latter part of April, do so the early part of this month. Shrubbery and flower borders and beds should be kept cleanly cultivated. A labor saver is to work your shrubbery plantings well and then mulch with sawdust to a depth of three inches. This keeps down weeds and grass and helps to conserve moisture. Divide violets into single plants and re-set in a fertile, sunny spot. Spray Cape Jasmine and Camellias to control white fly and scale. Climbing roses that bloom only once each year should be pruned as soon as they have finished blooming."

Seed 1 sow this month are: Sweet alyssum four o'clock, periwinkle, moonflower, sunflower, portulaca, ageratum, tithonia, Petunia, Marigold, torenia cosmos, zinnia, balsam, and African Golden Daisy.

In addition to sowing the seeds mentioned above the following plant may be set in the open: Bedding begonia, foliage plants, alternanthera, geranium, hibiscus, plumbago, caladium, sedum, and verbena.

Benefit Chicken Dinner Sponsored By Altar Society Is Success

Mrs. F. E. Smith, president of St. Theresa's Altar Society of St. John's Catholic Church of Swartz, announces that the benefit chicken dinner served by the members of the circle was a very successful event.

After the serving of the dinner games were enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. Smith and the members wish to thank everyone who participated in making this a gala and successful evening for this newly organized organization.

Business And Professional Women Close Club Year At Meeting

New Officers Elected At Business Meeting Held At Frances Hotel On May 8

At the meeting on Tuesday evening, May 8, at Hotel Frances, the B. & P. W. Club year was brought to a brilliant close, with President Pauline Welch and the various committee chairmen advancing their respective reports. A resume of the year's activities reflected a high accomplishment quota, and a noteworthy percentage of new members.

All members who attended the "round-the-world" dinner at Bastrop on May 4 were high in their praise of this novel event. Each course was served in a different setting, with decorations and food symbolic of specific countries, namely—Holland, United States (Texas), Hawaii and Brazil. The B. & P. W. Club at Bastrop should take a bow for its ingenuity on this occasion. Attending from Monroe were: Mrs. Earl Coats, Mr. Joe Coats, Miss Alice Baur, Miss Mary O'Kelly, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Miss Eloise Helm, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Miss Olive Terry, Miss Alma Terry, Mrs. Wilma Morris and husband, Mrs. Ava White, Miss Mamie Ober, Mrs. Faye Heard, Miss Maibel Hood, Mrs. Helen Blanchard and Mrs. Addie L. Junemann.

It was voted to present gifts to the two girls being sponsored by the club, one of whom will graduate from Kansas City Art Institute and the other as a nurse from St. Francis.

Delegates were selected to represent the Monroe Club at the state convention which will be held in Baton Rouge at Hotel Heidelberg on May 25, 26 and 27. These capable delegates are: Miss Eloise Helm, state recording secretary, Mrs. Laura Slater, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Miss Rosalie Verheyden, Mrs. Dora Anish, Miss Maibel Hood, Miss Alice Baur and Mrs. Gladys Miles. Miss Alice Baur was named to serve on the nominating committee at that time. The convention hostess clubs promise the best for the comfort and enjoyment of all visiting delegates in addition to a splendid program and it is hoped that a sizable representation will be on hand from Monroe. Every member who can possibly do so should plan to be on deck to uphold Monroe's high standard of interest and cooperation.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Mrs. Louise Massey; vice-president, Mrs. Helen Trichel; recording secretary, Mrs. Ruth Cooley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Christine Coleman and treasurer, Miss Alma Terry.

Outgoing officers who so efficiently served during the year just ending were: President, Mrs. Pauline Welch, vice-president, Miss Eloise Helm; recording secretary, Mrs. Helen Trichel and Miss Rosalie Verheyden, treasurer, Miss Alice Chilton and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Treis.

The next program meeting will be held at Hotel Frances on Tuesday, May 22nd at which time installation of new officers will be effected. Dinner reservations may be made with Miss Alice Baur.

Those present at the business meeting were: Mrs. Dora Anish, Miss Alice Baur, Mrs. Helen Blanchard, Miss Ola Buce, Miss Aulcy Burgess, Mrs. Alma Bushnell, Miss Alice Chilton, Mrs. Earl Coats, Ms. Christine Coleman, Miss Marie Comato, Mrs. Billie Harrell, Mrs. Faye Heard, Miss Eloise Helm, Miss Alma Terry, Mrs. Agnes Krogmire, Mrs. Addie L. Junemann, Mrs. Louise Massey, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Mrs. Mae Modes, Mrs. India Calden, Miss Bessie Hixon, Miss Mary O'Kelly, Mrs. Ouida Oxford, Miss Bettie Oxford, Mrs. Laura Slater, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Miss Jennie Smith, Miss Elizabeth Stenberg, Mrs. Mattie Scalla, Miss Alma Terry, Miss Ruth Thomas, Mrs. Myrtle Lee Thompson, Mrs. Elizabeth Treis, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Miss Rosalie Verheyden, Miss Hazel Wakefield, Mrs. Lela K. Beard and Mrs. Pauline Welch.

Don Horton Honored At Birthday Party On Sixth Birthday

Celebrating a happy sixth birthday, Don Horton was privileged to gather his friends and playmates together at his home for this occasion on Friday.

Youngsters were permitted to play outdoors in the garden where play ground equipment was available.

Games were played with prizes and colorful favors for all. Carolyn Willis was the lucky winner for the girls contest and Herbie Ryland, Jr., took the prize for the boys. Opening the many gifts so attractively wrapped was an exciting feature for the children, as Don passed each gift around the large table for them to see.

The candles on the beautiful blue birthday cake embossed in pink and white were lighted, which Don successfully blew out as he made his wish.

Mrs. E. E. Gregory then cut the cake and Mrs. Horton was assisted by Mrs. O. H. Hill and Mrs. Richard George in serving cake and ice cream to the children seated at long outside tables and were: Don Horton, honoree, Nan Hill, Jorenda Reynolds, Carolyn Willis, Herbie Ryland, Jr., Jimmy Peters, Tommy Ryland, Chuck Dent, Jimmy Burnette, Tommy Burnette, "Baby" Alice Smith, Sue Rice, Michael McGee, Janet Kipper, Hank Hammonds, Sara Anne Barnette, Steve Howze, Elizabeth Anne Bice, Frank Eason, Julia Ann Larsen, Carol Crotwell, Sharon Monroe, Carolyn Causey, Linda Hodge, Bill Gerson, Gerry Frazier, Gary Gannaway, and Carolyn Murray.

Mrs. R. G. Robinson Addresses State League Of Women Voters

Speaker Tells Women To Study Government Tools As Much As The Goods They Buy

Mrs. R. G. Robinson, president of the League of Women Voters in New Orleans, addressed the annual convention of Louisiana League of Women Voters at the luncheon meeting held Thursday at the Frances Hotel.

Mrs. Robinson, known to everyone throughout the state as "Ma-tha," has twice been president of the League of Women Voters in New Orleans and has also served as state president. At the present time she is on the committee which was chosen by the mayor of New Orleans to rewrite the charter of that city.

Mrs. Robinson has for many years been devoted to her work. Her grandfather was an Irish immigrant who came to New Orleans in 1837 and taught himself law. Her father, Samuel Gilmore, who helped smash the Louisiana lottery, and was active in good government for the better part of his life, was city attorney in New Orleans. Both sides of her family have lived in Louisiana for the past hundred years. An early ancestor on her mother's side was a governor of corporations who felt themselves so secure and so powerful that only a crusader would attack them.

The League president, who captivated her audience with her charm and easy manner of speaking, became interested in woman suffrage while a junior at Newcomb College in 1920. However, it was not until the late 20's that Mrs. Robinson joined the group. It was 1942 that the League of Women Voters again became active in Louisiana.

Mrs. Robinson, who was introduced by Mrs. DeWitt Henry, chose as her subject "Know Your Town Government." She stated that government should be analyzed like the articles women purchase in stores. "When women buy they know the value of the goods they are purchasing, but they know very little about the tools of their government," she said. Mrs. Robinson also stated that we give our children milk that the U. S. troops. She emphasized the fact that milk should be properly pasteurized and made safe for families to drink.

"The public should be interested in their jails, police departments and penitentiaries," stated Mrs. Robinson. At this time she paid tribute to Mrs. A. Dent Tisdale, who is on the Angola probe committee. Mrs. Robinson said these committees are nothing new; the state but if every citizen would take an interest in recommendations made by committee members, these suggestions would be adopted by the state.

Mrs. Robinson also spoke of the need for better education and urged home rule charters. She urged league members to work for city zoning, and a planning board. The speaker said "We are still in the transition stage from the women who don't vote to the women who don't know what they are voting for." She also urged that women study legislative mechanism and attend at least one or two sessions of the legislature to see how laws are made.

Mrs. Robinson concluded by urging women to sustain home rule legislation through keeping it close to home government.

Mrs. H. Theo Goss, new state president, presided at the luncheon and introduced Mrs. A. Dent Tisdale, who, at this time, recognized league presidents and their delegates attending the convention. Mrs. Tisdale also introduced the state board members who are as follows: Mrs. H. N. Lee, New Orleans; Mrs. Jean Bonham, Monroe; Mrs. Clyde Johnson, New Orleans; Mrs. Louis P. Leontacher, Lafayette; and Mrs. R. M. Troy, Monroe.

At the second session of the annual convention officers chosen to represent the state league were Mrs. H. T. Goss of Shreveport, state president, taking the place of Mrs. A. Dent Tisdale who will serve as vice-president. Other state officers include: Mrs. George Dreyfous of New Orleans, second vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Roberts of Shreveport, secretary; and Mrs. Louis P. Leontacher of Lafayette, treasurer.

Council members are: Mrs. R. M. Troy, Monroe; Mrs. Emory

Smith, Baton Rouge; Mrs. Walter E. Caine, Shreveport; Mrs. H. N. Lee and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of Baton Rouge, and Miss Jean Bonham of Monroe.

Mrs. Elmer Slagle, local league president, was introduced by Mrs. Goss. Mrs. Slagle then presented Monroe delegates who were: Mrs. James A. Noe, Mrs. Harold Riggs, Mrs. T. Mickel, Mrs. George Forman, Mrs. John Reitzel, Mrs. Donald Simmons, Mrs. Albin Lassiter, Mrs. H. S. Chilton, Mrs. E. T. Lamkin, Mrs. Claude Simpson, Mrs. N. Kiam, Mrs. J. R. Roark, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, and Mrs. Corbin Turpin.

The convention, which closed Thursday afternoon with another business session was followed at seven by a post-convention board meeting at "Grasshaven."

Out-of-town members attending the convention were: Mrs. Clyde W. Johnson, Miss Elise Field, Mrs. M. D. Jones, Mrs. G. R. Robinson, Mrs. George Dreyfous and Mrs. H. N. Lee, all of New Orleans; Mrs. Louis Leontacher, Lafayette; Mrs. Theodore Wilson, Mrs. F. A. McLeon, Mrs. Otis Mook, Mrs. David E. Brown, Jr., Mrs. V. B. Erickson, and Mrs. Emory Smith, of Baton Rouge; Mrs. D. H. Goldman, Mrs. Roy Evans, Mrs. Ralph Kiper, Mrs. H. B. Bodt, Mrs. E. E. Roberts, Mrs. Mary Gunning, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. R. L. Bengmen, Mrs. Walter Caine, Mrs. Victorio Morell, Mrs. H. T. Goss, and Mrs. R. M. Geter, Jr., of Shreveport.

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITIES

YRG's Club met on Monday evening with Frances McClary, president, presiding. After a delicious supper, Oree Johnson gave a beautiful devotional. Those who were present were: Leonora Nash, Marcella Alger, Johnnie Slaton, Lillie Mae Copes, Oree Johnson, Frances McClary, Pearl Hopkins, Mrs. Huddley, and Miss Sharp.

Mrs. Mildred Swift, city home demonstration agent, was the guest speaker for the Y-Wives' Club on Wednesday morning at the Y. Mrs. Swift gave some most helpful and practical guidance and counsel on interior decorating. Two projects, which the Y-Wives' Club have undertaken are: to sponsor a "Demonstration on Clothes for the Little Girl" which will be given by Mrs. Swift on May 23rd and to which anyone interested is invited; and to have a class on "slip covering" and cover the bedroom chairs for the residence at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Irvin Kilpatrick was hostess for the meeting on Wednesday.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teens Clubs have been having "special" meetings all this week to which they have invited their mothers as honored guests. Individual club groups have had members to read poems, sing or play special musical numbers, and read Mother's Day stories. Mrs. E. P. Cudd was the guest speaker for one of the special meetings: the Jolly Y-Janes' Club on Friday.

The Y. W. C. A. is one of the Red Feather services of your Twin City Community Chest.

The McClendon Home Demonstration Club Has Monthly Meeting

The McClendon Home Demonstration Club met April 19 with Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Fred Riser, president, presided at the meeting which was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Earl Pettit.

Reports were given by Mrs. Lizzie Heckford, Mrs. Fred Riser, Mrs. Lola Mize and Mrs. Melvin Riser. Mrs. Earl Pettit gave a demonstration on trimming for children's clothing.

Refreshments were then served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. Earl Pettit, Mrs. O. O. Cloyd, Mrs. Lola Mize, Mrs. B. C. Marshall, Mrs. Fred Riser, Mrs. Dorothy Huntsman, Mrs. Minnie Jordan, Mrs. Melvin Riser, Mrs. Connie Goodwin, Mrs. Lizzie Heckford, Mrs. Henry Blazier and Mrs. Allene Hendrix, a new member. Visitors were Mrs. W. H. Furr and Mrs. Burgess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Blazier May 7 at 2 p.m.

TO BE JUNE BRIDE

Miss Kathryn Blackwell, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Robert J. Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sanders, of Springhill, is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blackwell, of Forest. The wedding will be solemnized June 16 at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the First Baptist Church in Forest.

MONROE QUOTA CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AT MAY MEETING

Mrs. W. J. Veazey, Executive Secretary for the American Red Cross and noted civic leader, has been elected president of the Quota Club of Monroe, Louisiana, for the 1951-52 year. To help her in her new post the Club selected Mrs. Tom Jett as first vice president and Mrs. J. W. Keene as second vice president. Mrs. John B. Collins was chosen treasurer; Mrs. Eva Gay Malone, secretary; and Mrs. J. P. Norris, Jr., corresponding secretary.

The Monroe Quota Club, a member of Quota International, Inc., is a service club composed of women representing various recognized businesses, professions, agricultural, and industrial activities or executive positions.

One of the recent projects of the local organization has been the placement of an audiometer in the parish school; and in conjunction with that, the Club plans to supply hearing aids which are proved necessary to those needy children who are unable to buy them themselves. Included also in the charitable projects of the Quota Club is Girl Scout work and Nurses' Scholarships.

Policy making for the Club is carried on by the Board of Directors which meets monthly. The Board for the current season is piloted by Mrs. W. J. Veazey, and is composed of the elected officers, as well as Mrs. H. M. James, past president; Mrs. Joe T. Murray, Mrs. D. L. Agnew, and Mrs. Allen Ritter, members at large.

WINS PIANO RATING

Miss Deanna McCormick, talented young pianist, has received added recognition by winning significant honors this spring in the field of music. She scored a superior rating in the national piano playing auditions sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers and held recently on the campus of Northeast Louisiana State College, where she is a pupil of Mrs. Eloise Calhoun Stanhope. Miss McCormick, a freshman at Ouachita Parish High School, also was awarded a high rating as accompanist for the O. P. H. S. Glee Club when the organization participated in the spring music festival at Ruston. Her music interests extend to the Chansonnets, a club in which she holds membership. Prior to her study of piano here, she was a pupil of Jennie K. Moore, Tuscaloosa, Ala. Miss McCormick is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. A. McCormick, of West Monroe.

ST. ANNE'S CIRCLE ENJOYS BARBECUE AT RILEY CAMP

Mrs. W. J. Riley graciously offered the hospitality of her camp when St. Anne's Circle met for the final meeting of this year. The atmosphere of friendliness which prevailed throughout the day was indeed credited to the genial hosts. Chairmen for this occasion were: Mr. Vincent Marsala, Mrs. Roy Colquett, Mr. O. L. Flournoy. His Excellency, Charles P. Greco, Bishop of Alexandria, was the honored guest for the day, also the Rev. Messrs. John C. Marsh, pastor of St. Matthew's Church and Father Marvin Bordelon and Father Roland Bordelon. The outgoing president, Mrs. George Tonore, received a gift from the circle as a token of gratitude from the members in recognition of the splendid work accomplished during her term of office. She graciously thanked the ladies for their cooperation in the past year and asked that they give the same wholehearted support to the new officers. Mrs. Tonore then introduced His Excellency, Bishop Greco, who in his gracious manner installed the following new officers for the coming term: President, Mrs. Roy Kelly; vice president, Mr. Harry Schroeder; secretary, Mrs. Leo Ritter; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Wilds, Jr.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joe Had-dad.

Bishop Greco commended the members of St. Anne's Circle for their fine spirit of cooperation with their pastor and the accomplishments of the past year. Messrs. Marsh thanked the outgoing officers: Mrs. George Tonore, president; Mrs. C. P. Guerriero, vice president; Mrs. Ben Breard, secretary; Mrs. Morris Peterson, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Mulhearn, corresponding secretary; and all the members for their cooperation during the past year. He gave the intentions to the "Living Rosary" during the summer months.

The following members and guests enjoyed the chicken barbecue done to a perfection by Capt. Tom Dupree: Mrs. Frank Parrino, Mrs. Luke Elliott, Miss Mary Lou Devereaux, Mrs. Mary Dunn, Mrs. Roy Colquett, Mrs. Tommy Hayes, Mrs. Richard LeBrun, Mrs. Charles Wilds Jr., Mrs. J. W. Webster, Mrs. George Elias, Mrs. Vincent Marsala, Mrs. Richard Glaholt, Mrs. Pete Garilli, Mrs. Harold Breard, Mrs. R. L. Wood, Sr. Mrs. Armand Breard, Mrs.

MRS. GEORGE LESTER IS GUEST SPEAKER AT ANNUAL OPEN MEETING OF REVIEW CLUB

The Review Club held its annual open meeting Monday in the home of Ms. B. B. Cobb, 1412 South Grand.

Mrs. Lea Thompson introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. George Lester of south Louisiana. Mrs. Lester is well known throughout the state for her copies of Audubon prints.

The members of the club and their guests were captivated by Mrs. Lester's charm and delightful sense of humor. A native of New Orleans, she married Mr. Lester and moved to West Feliciana parish where Audubon had lived for a number of years and painted many of his famous pictures. It was only natural that Mrs. Lester should become interested in Audubon's history and art. Out of this interest came a desire to share her knowledge and appreciation with others.

Mrs. Lester gave a resume of John James Audubon's early life in France and the factors that led to his arrival in this country to paint the birds of North America. Discouraged and without funds, he came to New Orleans in 1821 to paint portraits or china to raise some money. It was here

Woman Gets Rose, Fatally Wounded

Kansas City, May 12.—(P)—The day before she was slain Mrs. Ruth Hunsaker received a single red rose from her estranged husband.

The rose was delivered at a cafe where she worked. It was in a box tied with a blue ribbon. An accompanying note read "Love, Ralph."

Mrs. Jo Ann Lasswell, proprietor of the cafe, said Mrs. Hunsaker, 36, was upset and remarked:

"My husband always said if he ever sent me a big red rose, that would be the end of everything."

She was shot with an automatic pistol yesterday morning at the cafe where she worked.

The husband, Ralph Hunsaker, 42, was arrested and a warrant was issued charging him with first degree murder. Police said he admitted the slaying. In his room, police found a florist's receipt for one red rose.

W. S. C. S. OF FIRST METHODIST CHURCH HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church held their last business and program meeting of the year at the church Tuesday, May 1st. Mrs. Mike John, Jr., president, presided and Mrs. Gaston Eikel recorded in the absence of the secretary. The business session was opened with song "Come Thou Almighty King."

As this was the last meeting of the year, Mrs. Mike John, Jr., president, expressed her appreciation to the various officers of the year for their cooperation and each officer gave an interesting resume of their years activities.

Mrs. John summarized the year as progressive with a substantial increase in membership and urged that the plan for visiting prospective new members be carried on through the next year.

Mrs. Brothers, read the slate of officers for the coming year, for the nominating committee, which were elected as follows: Mrs. Mike John, Jr., president; Mrs. J. J. Joyce, vice-president; Mrs. Gardner Young, recording secretary; Mrs. J. N. Riddle, treasurer; Mrs. Ella Long, promotion secretary.

Announcements were as follows: Wednesday, May 16th at 9:30 a. m. would be the executive committee meeting instead of the 15th. The society will meet at the church on the 5th Tuesday for a tea welcoming new members and the installation of officers.

Mrs. J. J. Joyce, vice-president, opened the program with a song, the group joined in singing "Help Somebody Today." Mrs. Price, chairman of group 1 read the scripture on the "Good Samaritan." Others who were on the program were Mrs. Charles Price, Mrs. F. Barnett and Mrs. A. B. Myatt, who gave interesting talks on the alcohol problem. The meeting closed with prayer.

HIGHER TAXES BEING OPPOSED

Car Owners Fight Plan To Impose Up To 31 Per Cent Levy On Automobiles

All who feel indispensed to pay up to 31 per cent in taxes on the next auto they are to buy are urged to wire the two Louisiana senators, Allen J. Ellender and Russell Long, insisting that they vote against proposed legislation. In another page of the World today, it is shown in detail how already taxes levied total $500 on a $2,000 car purchased in Monroe at present. If this is not enough, it is proposed to up the tax over this staggering figure. If proposed legislation is enacted into law, automobiles are an essential tool for virtually all American families. A total of fully 50,000 auto dealers are concerned and their 500,000 employees plus their families.

In no uncertain terms, it is urged that our members of congress must know that no further oppressive taxation will be tolerated. The time to take this action is right now!

Boyle's Dispatches Are Dramatized On Television

New York, May 12.—(Special) The Korean conflict came to television last night in the form of a realistic drama based on the dispatches of Hal Boyle, Associated Press war correspondent and columnist. The Pulitzer Prize Playhouse presented the play, entitled "Korea—the Thousand Yard Look," over the American Broadcasting Company TV network.

A quarter-acre studio was used for the production with stage settings and props, including army-issued weapons and equipment, simulating the battle background of Korea.

Boyle, a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1945, narrated the play. He described the "thousand yard look" as the "look of distance that comes into the eyes of a man when he has seen too much of battle and too little of home."

Boyle is now working out of the A. P.'s New York headquarters.

MRS. JOHNSON IS HEAD OF O. E. S.

Elected President For Coming Year; Miss Lane Gives Address

The Ouachita Educational Association elected the following officers for the coming year the past week: Mrs. Jase Johnson, president; Mack Avents, vice-president; Mrs. H. M. Conn, secretary; Miss Eleanor Johnson, treasurer; Bobby C. Wilson, parliamentarian.

Miss Caro Lane, consultant for exceptional children, state department of education, Baton Rouge, was the guest speaker who spoke informally to the group using her main trend of thought "The Value of Diagnosis of the Exceptional Child." She said in part: "When we use the term exceptional child, all too often we think of the child who is mentally above his classmates and friends. This is only one type of exceptional child... add to this mentally handicapped, the deaf, blind, non-speaking, those with speech defects, cardiac cases, spastic cases, those suffering from rheumatic fever, the epileptic—and others you may think of.

"These children need to be diagnosed in order to place them where they belong in the educational world. Never attempt to classify these children educationally until they are properly diagnosed. Treatment and medical care may be required before they will be able to enter the educational world. The classroom teacher has a real job with these exceptional children. To aid the teacher we need a diagnostic center in our state.

"Often a teacher screens her group and finds one or more classified as exceptional. She realizes she cannot do much toward teaching these children—but where can she get the proper help? The answer to this would be a diagnostic center at our own state university, L. S. U. It is such a group as yours that can secure this much needed center if you ask for it and work for its establishment. All children deserve the right to be properly classified in the educational realm, and the only way this can be done is by proper diagnosis."

Will Drink Water To Conserve Wheat

Champaign, Ill., May 12.—(AP)—If you attend a dinner at the University of Illinois Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, all you get will be a glass of water. And it will cost you $1.

A Champaign-Urbana community committee has arranged the dinner to kick off its drive to "share a meal with India." The group hopes to purchase and send a carload of wheat to India, which is threatened with starvation and has been seeking wheat from this and other countries.

Mokham Singh Sandu, president of the Indian student association at the university, will speak at the dinner and describe conditions in his homeland.

Pioneer Teacher Is Now Retiring

Ferriday, La., May 12.—One of Monterey's pioneer-school teachers will be missing when school starts again in the fall.

She is Mrs. Bessie Holland, who has been teaching there for more than 30 years. Miss Bessie has sent many of her pupils out into the world to become among Concordia parish's foremost citizens.

After finishing the Louisiana State Normal in the spring of 1909, Mrs. Holland began her teaching career in the Vidalia High School that fall. She taught at the Vidalia High School one year, and then transferred to the Monterey High School. Except for a few lapses in her teaching career at the Monterey High School she has taught there ever since.

Ways Of Finding Potential Delinquents Are Explained

By Frank Carey Cincinnati, May 13.—(AP)—A possible means of detecting potential delinquents among children so as to forestall trouble has been described to the American Psychiatric Association.

Two University of Minnesota psychologists yesterday described a "personality inventory" test they had used in studying some 4,000 ninth grade students in Minneapolis public schools and in classifying them as to potentialities for juvenile delinquency.

Doctors Elio D. Monachesi and Starke R. Hathaway said a study of police court records two years later showed that 597 had had contacts with juvenile court either before or after being tested.

Saying that 442 of these were boys, the researchers declared that boys who had appeared likely to become delinquents as indicated by the personality tests were four times more numerous among actual cases than boys who had shown a low potential for delinquency.

They did not give completely comparable statistics on the findings among girls but said "There is a greater likelihood for boys to get into trouble than girls."

In another report to the closing session of the Psychiatric Association's annual meeting, Dr. James McGinnis of Los Angeles said the handy knife or gun might provide the final touch-off to murder for a person with a potentiality for delinquency.

Describing a five-year study of 1,000 women delinquents convicted of one or more felonies, Dr. McGinnis said the indications are that various factors lead to "out-ging" delinquency.

They are: (1) Basic defects in early family relationships (2) Various abnormal psychological conditions including many forms of mental illness (3) Physical illness or injury (4) General environment factors and (5) Specific environment factors.

It was in describing the last-named factor that McGinnis said: "The presence of the knife, the gun, or other lethal weapon, lying at hand as the potential offender experiences a catastrophic episode of rage or fright, may almost create the crime of murder or manslaughter."

And he declared that to the "delinquency-ready" person, the sight of inadequately-protected funds, or of the key in an unguarded automobile might—together with accessory incidents—open the gates of the correctional institutions.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. Yes. The recipe of psychologists Lester A. Kirkendall and Ruth F. Osborne is: "Mix one part common sense with two parts consideration, with one and half parts experience and three parts emotional maturity." The most neglected part is emotional maturity—gownupness. Our own booklet, "How to Be An Emotional Grown-up" will improve your dateability many times. Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only), plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Yes, says philosopher Harry Overstreet, who defines personality as the number and importance of the things to which you are related. Every new word, he says, acts as a bridge to some new relationship either to persons, or some larger human service—some new knowledge of yourself or of the world you live in. A wonderful concept of personality! Our new booklet, "How to Increase Your Word Power, Think Better, Spell Perfectly," with Vocabulary Test of Intelligence, sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only), plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No. They should feel gratified that it is with pupils of the same learning ability. If a child with an IQ of 80 or 90 is placed with those of 120 and higher, he not only feels inferior, but doesn't even have a fair chance. Putting him with children of his own ability gives him the feeling of fair competition—the success instead of failure.

Increase Your Word Power! Words make a great deal of difference in how you impress people. Therefore, you can improve yourself and create a more favorable impression if you read our instructive new booklet, "How to Increase Your Word Power, Think Better and Spell Perfectly," with Vocabulary Test of Intelligence.

Hal Boyle's Notebook

New York—One of the things that interests children most about their parents is how they came to be married.

When mother and her five children were all young together, we used to sit around the kitchen table on winter afternoons and drink tea and eat bread and butter—and get Mama to tell the story of her life.

What we wanted most to hear about was her two big romances. But you just couldn't start right out by asking her about them. Mama had to be in the right mood. So we'd give her the buildup.

"Tell us about when you were a girl in Ireland, Mama," we began craftily.

And Mama would tell what it was like to be the oldest daughter in a family of ten—her mother dead—on a poor farm in County Mayo.

"It seems like all I have done since I was born is to raise children," she mused, catching out absent-mindedly to wipe the nearest runny nose.

We sighed over her care-filled childhood, and asked:

"Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, tell us about how you came to America."

So she'd pour some more tea and tell about her long voyage over in what they used to call the steerage. She was still in her teens, and got dreadfully seasick, and cried with joy when she first saw the Statue of Liberty.

And to this day whenever I see the Statue of Liberty I never think of it as just a statue—I see it as Mama, a young girl against the world.

"Now tell us about going to Philadelphia and meeting the nickel miser," we'd demand.

"Who?" said Mama, pretending to be mystified.

"You know—the nickel miser."

"Well, I stayed in Philadelphia for a while—and a young man began calling on me," said Mama.

"I suppose he was my first beau. He was very thrifty. He used to take me to the amusement park. He would just buy me a big nickel ice cream cone, and we'd just walk around for a while and then go home. No, he never sent me any flowers or chocolates."

We all agreed he was a real cheapskate. And he pictured him as a cadaverous man with an evil leering face who wore a dirty straw hat and kicked little dogs.

"If you'd married him, we'd have an old nickel miser for a daddy," one of us would say, feeling life had been lucky to us.

"Well, some of you would, Mama would say, breaking into a laugh. 'But as I told you, he was a very thrifty young man.'

Then to her children would exchange looks of wonder, trying to think what the world would be like with some of us not there.

And then the best part of the story, much better than the tale of Cinderella because it was all so true.

"Now tell us how you came to Kansas City and met Dad."

"Well, Cousin Bridget invited me to come and stay with her," said Mama. "One day a boy came to the back door delivering groceries, and the first thing he said when he saw me was, 'Hello, Cutie.' I thought he was awful fresh, and told him so."

"After that he started calling me 'Greenhorn'—that's what they used to call anyone who'd just come over from Ireland. He was a gawky boy, but he had a nice smile. One afternoon he came into the kitchen and was helping me take the groceries out of the box, and suddenly he leaned over and kissed me."

Mama would blush then and one of the kids would say:

"I guess you were so pretty then, Mama, he just couldn't help himself."

"Well, I wasn't so mad about it afterward," Mama said. "Now, enough of this nonsense. You children go out and play with your sled. I've got to clean up this kitchen."

And out into the snow we went, stirred by the knowledge that Cleopatra had nothing on our mom and glad indeed that she had picked our dad instead of the skinflint nickel miser in Philadelphia.

I hope that in telling this Mother's Day kitchen tale of long ago that Mama won't mind if I give the postscript to her romance. When it came time for her ex-grocery boy to die some years ago, his mind wandered back to the days of their courtship.

"I've got a girl," he sighed contentedly, "and her name is Margaret." And shortly thereafter he went to sleep.

Classroom Group To Meet Monday

Mrs. Almee Cook and faculty, Mitchell School, West Monroe, will be hosts to the Ouachita Parish Classroom Teachers Association, Monday evening, May 14 when they meet for the final meeting of this school year.

The program committee has planned a panel discussion for the evening. Mrs. Almee Cook will be the moderator, while Fred L. Stricklin, O. P. H. S., will be the leader of the discussion group. Others participating will be Mrs. Elizabeth Bonnette, Miss Ola Mae Pennington, Miss Mary Annie Wall and Mrs. G. B. Wilson.

The topic for discussion will be, "What Can We Do to Improve the Moral Fiber of the Nation?" This is a topic that is receiving much consideration throughout our nation and the members of the panel are giving it a great deal of study and will have something worth while to offer at this meeting. All teachers and other interested persons are urged to be present.

Mrs. Katie Mae Zoll, president, states that the Ouachita all-parish board will entertain, under the direction of their director, Mr. Bry-

Selman Plans On Summer Roundup

The Selman Parent-Teacher Association will conduct its annual summer roundup, Thursday, May 24 at the Selman School. Dr. F. E. McCarty, associated with Wright Bendel Clinic will be the examining physician. Mrs. F. L. Wooley, R. N. will assist Dr. McCarty with the examinations. All parents with pre-school children, who will be ready to enter Selman this September are urged to bring their children for this free diagnosis. If any one living within the Selman area, not planning to send their children to Selman, and wants the examination they may feel welcome to come at this time. Dr. McCarty and Mrs. Wooley plan to begin their examinations promptly at 8:30 a.m.

Although Japan has about 200 volcanoes, only 50 of them are considered active.

"Yes...I Condemned THE CATHOLIC CHURCH"

"And you would, too," wrote a non-Catholic recently, "if all the things I heard about it were true."

"For years, I kept hearing that the Catholic Church was opposed to the Bible and tried to suppress it. I was told that the Church had changed Christ's teaching and practiced pompous pagan forms of worship. It was told to me that Catholics worship statues and images, and that the Catholic Church defied God's law and changed the Sabbath."

"But now I have learned that these stories and many others about the Catholic Church are not true—and never were."

Every day, thousands of our non-Catholic friends and neighbors are discovering, as this man did... that Catholic belief, worship and history are widely misrepresented and misunderstood.

That is why we publish these advertisements... and invite you to write for free explanatory pamphlets. We want you to know us as we are—not as false rumors and slanders represent us to be. We want you to know... if only for your own information... what the Catholic Church actually teaches, and what we Catholics actually believe.

This enables you to get authentic information about the Catholic Church—to investigate in the privacy of your own home. Then... even though you may not agree with Catholic beliefs and practices... you will at least understand

MOTHERS' DAY MESSAGE GIVEN

Dr. Acker Urges That One's Parent Be Remembered Today

St. Louis, Mo., May 13. (Special)—In a special Mother's Day message prepared for delivery on the Lutheran Hour, Dr. Lawrence Acker, speaker on the world's most wide-spread broadcast, urges his hearers "to remember your mother with a gift on Mother's Day."

Basing his address on the Old Testament story of Hannah's prayer, "O God for a child," Dr. Acker tells his international audience that "there is a difference between a home and a Christian home. A home is the case, a Christian home is the case and the jewel. A home is a flower, a Christian home is the flower and the perfume. A home is the violin and the melody music."

Dr. Acker deprecates the fact that

"so many mothers have no time for their children during the evening hours, rather turn their children over to baby sitters when they should have their children gathered about them telling them about Jesus..."

The speaker for the Lutheran Hour concludes with a plea for more old-fashioned mothers "who are not just meal packers and help partners in a domestic establishment, but whose crown is their family, and who will weave themselves into the life and trust and ideals of their children that the heart of their husbands doth safely trust in them and their children rise up and call them blessed."

First tin plate in America was made in a copper works at Pittsburgh in 1853.

DeWitt MacKenzie's Column

(Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst)
The Duke of Edinburgh, husband of Princess Elizabeth, heiress to the British throne, has been chided by God-fearing folk of Scotland for playing polo on the Sabbath.

"The Monthly Record", official publication of the free church of Scotland, has noted that the Duke engaged in a recent international match on Sunday in Rome—and that her royal highness also was present. Such treatment of Sunday is, of course, a very grave sin in the eyes of many Scots.

Your highly religious Scot won't even engage in the national game of golf on the Sabbath. And he loves that sport so much that he uses a golf club for a cane when he goes strolling—just in case he might get a chance to shoot a hole or two.

I've encountered this religious ardor many times in the land of my maternal ancestors, especially in the highlands where I used to fly-fish for trout.

Trout developments are worth emphasis for they have a great place—or should have—in our lives these parlous days. It's spiritual development, and not atomic bombs, which is going to put the world on the right road in the long run.

I remember one June Sunday when I was motoring in the highlands and picked up a dour Scot who was trudging along the dusty road to the old kirk. Just to make conversation I remarked:

"You don't do fishing here on Sunday, do you?"
He drew in his breath as though I had struck him and replied: "This is one part of the world where they remember the fourth commandment."

With that he made me let him out of the car, and he resumed his dusty walk to the house of God. He just wouldn't ride with me any farther.

Well, I could understand his feelings, for I had encountered similar things before. There used to be, and probably still is, a like feeling among the sturdy fisher folk of lovely old St. Ives on the south coast of England. I have known them to fling an artist into the sea because he was painting a picture on the Sabbath.

And when I was a lad in the Methodist parsonage in Vermont, we maintained a "Scotch" Sabbath. I imagine this aspect of Vermont life half a century ago was similar to that in many other parts of our great country.

I'm reminded of a conversation I had years ago with the late Stanley Baldwin when he was prime minister of Britain. He had lived in America and was a great admirer of our country. We fell to talking of New England, and I remarked that it was changing greatly—that the old puritan spirit it was disappearing. And he exclaimed (as nearly as I can recall his words):

"Oh, but that must not be. It is that same puritan spirit which has made America the great country it is."

That has stuck in my mind all these years as a sage observation. Certainly the spirituality of our puritan forefathers has played a major part in our development. Perhaps it isn't going too far to say that it is the foundation of our progress and strength.

Please don't misunderstand me. I'm not suggesting that spirituality necessarily abjures golf on Sunday. That may be a matter for individual decision. However, I do think that as we meet the emergencies of our world upheaval we can well bear in mind another remark which Baldwin made to me:

"I believe that no man can go through life bearing a great burden without divine guidance."

That same thought applies to nations, as well as individuals.

DOROTHY DIX

Holding A Man

Femininity, Adaptability,
Simplicity Best Tactics

DEAR MISS DIX: We are three girls who have no trouble in attracting boys, but we don't know how to hold them and keep them interested after we get them.

MARY, BELL AND SUE

ANSWER: It is always easier to get a man than it is to keep him.

A girl may have a pretty face, but if she is dull and tiresome, a man gets tired of looking at her. She may have a keen line, but if she monopolizes all of the conversation he gets tired of listening to her. She may be a good dancer, but if she is never willing to stay put at an evening he drops her because there are times when his feet hurt and he is tired and he doesn't want to be dragged around a dance floor.

So you see, it takes more than one thing to hold a man. You just can't drag him down and call it a day. You have to keep on the job.

ACT LIKE A GIRL

Of course, nobody can give you a hard and fast rule for holding a boy after you have caught him, but I should say that always and under all circumstances with any man a woman's best bet is femininity. Look like a girl. Act like a girl.

Adaptability is another winning play for a girl to make. Men like girls who fall in with their moods, who are willing to step out if they want to go, or sit at home and look at television.

Men like girls who are simple and natural and who don't put on any airs. Many a girl never has any dates because she is so over-dressed she makes a lad feel that he couldn't ask her to ride in his jalopy or to go to the movies with him. Men like girls who have mercy on their pocketbooks.

Men like girls who are pleased at their attentions, but who don't gush and gurgie with gratitude. It shows they are not used to men's attention and men like other men's O. K. on a girl. Men like girls who let them do the love-making. They want to be the hunter instead of the hunted.

And, finally, men hate and loathe the girl who has the telephone habit and who calls them up in business hours. Nor can they stand the girl who nounds them over the phone to come and see her and wants to know why they haven't been around.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am grieving myself to death because my husband is in love with my best friend, but he denies it and won't let me discuss the affair. He continues to pretend to love me, but his demonstrations of love seem patronizing. Some months ago I noticed he began finding so much fault with me—my looks and my clothes, and he likes to joke about my being fat. We have been married many years and have fine children whom I do not want to hurt, but when I suspect he has been with this woman I nearly kill me, and I can't help showing him how I feel. I can't go to her and talk to her because I know she will deny it, too. Please help me to a solution to my problem.

L. K.

ANSWER: The two things that a woman shouldn't do when she suspects her husband of philandering is to make scenes with him about it, and to humiliate herself by going to the "other woman" and asking her to give him up. Both only serve to make a bad matter worse.

There is nothing like a wife's tears and reproaches to bring an incipient love affair to a head. Many a man who was only amusing himself by a flirtation that would have died of itself if left alone has had his wife literally drive him into the "other woman's" arms by her taking it too seriously and going about with the air of a martyr. Sometimes a wife can laugh off her husband's affairs, but she can never cry them off.

In your particular case you seem to have no real evidence of your husband's infidelity, which makes it a doubly foolish thing for you to do anything except to try to overcome your jealousy and suspicions, and assume that things are as they always were between you and your husband.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have done something wrong. I don't know why I did it. Just on the impulse of the moment. And I shall spend my life repenting it. I have the dearest mother in the world. I have always told her everything but not this, yet I think she senses it, though she never says a word. I think I could stand it better if I told her. Shall I?

ONLY CHILD

ANSWER: Yes, tell her. She will understand and forgive and help you find yourself. Remember what the Bible says, "As one whom a mother comforteth." There is no other such healing in the world.

DOROTHY DIX cannot answer personal mail. She explains why a jealous person behaves that way in letter D-5, "Jealousy." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Miss Dix, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 98, Times Square Station, New York 18, N.Y.

Signal Corps Place
Order For Balloons

New York, May 12.—(AP)—The U.S. signal corps has ordered a balloon capable of exceeding all previous altitude records except those held by rockets.

Dewey and Almy Chemical Company, of Cambridge, Mass., which will make the balloon, announced yesterday that it would rise 30 miles. That would pass the old balloon record by four miles.

The balloon will not carry passengers, but five pounds of weather instruments, including a radio for sending results back to earth. Data on electrical conditions, air density and wind current will be provided by the balloon's instruments.

TO WED

Arts And Crafts
Shown At School

Arts and Crafts Day was held recently in Sterling by the fourth grade room of the A. L. Smith School. Mrs. Sallie Mulhearn, teacher. The day was set aside as "arts and crafts day" for the school.

Hundreds came throughout the day to marvel at the beautiful and clever display of various handicrafts.

Three local artists had special displays. They were Mrs. Lillian Page, Mrs. Glen Easterlin and Mrs. Josephine Horn.

So great was the success that Sterling looks forward to another educational day to be held again.

Various ladies served as hostesses and Mrs. Sallie Mulhearn, who planned the occasion, received many compliments for her work and the success of the entire affair.

BILLY DAVIS TO HEAD SENIORS

Tech Youth Named President Of Class Of 1952

Ruston, May 12.—(Special)—Billy Davis, of Farmerville, was elected president of the Louisiana Tech senior class for 1951-52 in a recent student run-off election here. Davis is a star performer on the Tech track squad.

Davis defeated Joe Mott of Farmerville for the post.

In the race for senior vice-president Jeri Thompson, of Cotton Valley, received the most votes, winning over James R. (Cotton) Hildreth, of Pine Bluff, Ark.

Other winners in the student election were the following:

Alice Perry, of Perryville, senior class secretary.

Helen Harris, of Shreveport, junior vice-president.

Patsy King, Alexandria, sophomore vice-president.

Claire Nattin, Homer, sophomore secretary.

Gloria Bozeman, Haynesville, sophomore treasurer.

Primary election winners for Tech student offices were Ed Michael, Homer, senior, treasurer; Sam Austin, Mooringsport, junior president; Bennie Jean Manor, El Dorado, junior secretary; Alice Marie Walker, Shreveport; junior treasurer, and Travis DeFreese, Monroe, sophomore president.

An accident insurance policy for all members of the Tech student body was also approved by student votes in the election. Voting was 282 for and 215 against the plan, which is designed to protect students financially in injuries resulting from participation in intramural sports and the like.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By Oswald Jacoby

Here's Proper Way To Score

I have recently had several questions on the same point from readers in different parts of the country. Here is the most typical of these questions, from a reader in Wichita, Kansas:

"Our opponents had a mixed Canasta made up of four queens and three deuces. They also had all four threes. We went out, catching them with unmelded cards that totalled 150 points.

"First they wanted to offset their unmelded cards by throwing away their canasta. However, the cards in the canasta counted to only 100 points. Therefore they had to use a red three. They then decided to keep the canasta and use two of the red threes.

"Were they entitled to do this? What should their score be for the hand?"

It is a custom for players to use their melded cards to balance the loss of their unmelded cards. This is not legally necessary; it is just done to make the counting easier.

When you do use the cards in a canasta for this purpose, you do not lose the canasta bonus. If you break up your red threes, you still get the full bonus of 800 points for the red threes.

Let us count up the hand in question and see what the correct score is.

The opponents of my correspondent were entitled to 800 points for the red threes and to 300 points for their canasta. They should have written 1100 points down on their scorecard as the first part of their score on that hand.

Only after writing down that bonus score should they count melded or unmelded cards. Remember that if this point puzzles you: Count your base score first, before even looking at the points for melded cards or for the cards still in your hand.

Those opponents should next total their unmelded cards (150 points) and compare it with the 100 points for the melded four queens and three deuces. The net total is minus 50 points. Hence they write down minus 50 points as the second part of their score on that hand.

Their full score for the hand would be 1050 points. That is the net value of plus 1100 and minus 50 points.

Reminds Cafes Of Tax;
Receives Telephone Call

Knoxville, Tenn., May 12.—(AP)—After notices reminded delinquent restaurant owners they had not paid their lunchroom privilege tax, the city finance office received an indignant telephone call.

"We don't owe any tax," protested a restaurant operator to office Manager William Paylor yesterday. "We don't serve lunches."

"Nope, only evening meals."

Hospital Groups Told 'What's Cooking In Hospital Kitchen
Goes Long Way'

Baton Rouge, La., May 12.—(AP)—What's cooking in the hospital kitchen may decide how quickly the patients get well, three Louisiana hospital groups were told today.

Sister Mary Euphemia of New Orleans charity hospital addressed a joint meeting of the Louisiana Hospital Association, Louisiana Dietetic Association and Louisiana Association of Medical Record Librarians.

"Food is closely allied with medical care in a hospital," the Catholic nun said. "Good nutrition is important in the convalescence of patients, in keeping their good will and in pleasing hospital personnel, they can give better care to patients."

Sister Euphemia recommended "keeping a budget, good records and skillful purchasing." She said trained dietary personnel would reduce "costly turnover in employees."

Other speakers included Dr. Robert Bernard, superintendent of New Orleans charity hospital; S. L. Donahue of the state department of revenue; and Raymond C. Wilson of Southern Baptist Hospital, New Orleans.

In elections, Robert Guy, administrator of Baton Rouge General Hospital, was named to succeed Joseph W. Hinsley of New Orleans as president of the State Hospital Association.

Other association officers chosen included Sister Celestine of Hotel Dieu, New Orleans, as vice-president; State Hospital Director Jesse Bankston as secretary-treasurer, and P. A. Waters of Alexandria, member of the board.

The medical record librarians re-elected Mrs. Marian Crowden of Huey P. Long charity hospital, Pineville, as their association president, and also chose these other officers:

Mrs. Eddie Cooksey of New Orleans charity and Mrs. Julie Ahern of Mercy Hospital-Southeastern, New Orleans, as vice-presidents; Mrs. Aramisse Melancon of Hotel Dieu, New Orleans, as secretary, and Miss Louise Troesch of Toussaint Infirmary, New Orleans, as treasurer.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MONROE

Grammont and Catalpa Sts.
Ernest Duncan Holloway, minister.
The Rev. Wayne Fulton, director of religious education in the Synod of Louisiana, will lead the intensive Bible study which is sponsored by the Women of the Church. The study days are Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, May 16, 17, 18. The hour of the study period is 2:30 in the afternoon. The book for study is the Epistle of James.
Wednesday, evening, May 16, 7:30 Family Night will be observed. After a period of singing, hearing a message by Mr. Fulton, a film "Friendship Begins At Home" will be shown. Following the program ice cream and cake will be served.
"Our Obligations As Sons and Daughters" is the theme of the morning message. We honor our Mothers. We thank God for them. We are grateful for their instructions. And yet there is more involved than a quickening of our emotions. God demands that our mothers and fathers be honored. What is the meaning of honor? What are our obligations as worthy sons and daughters? "Love God and Do as Our Pleasure" is the subject of the evening meditation. This is another talk based on the ten laws.
A hearty welcome awaits you at all hours of worship.

Our Children

Honor is an old word, a grand old word and one that should be kept shining, polished by use, not just on the tongue but in daily practice. What is honor? It is the intangible quality of soul that puts duty before self-preservation, self-interest. It is a recognition of what is right and the courage to act on recognition. It is the highest expression of a fine character.
In days gone by, men lived and worked by the code of honor. Having given his word a man stood by it though he sacrificed what he held dear to do so. Often he suffered injustice, disgrace, poverty, to keep his honor clean. "All is lost, save honor" was not then a joke.
Mark Twain spent years of hard work to pay a debt that he might have avoided had not honor demanded that he pay it. His honor, remember, his action had meaning, conviction for him regardless of how it might look to others.
General Grant, sick to death, wrote his last book that he might die free of debt. Nobody would have blamed him for sitting back and saying "I can't help it. I'm ill and can't be bothered." But that sense of honor, his deep desire to keep it shining to the end, forced him to his task.
Soldiers in the army, navy and air force know well what honor means. They prove it over and over when they stand and fight to the end, knowing it is the end for them. They could save themselves but Honor, Duty, stern daughter of the voice of God, says stand, and they stand with the light of Honor on their faces, her spirit in their souls. Such men do not die. They live on in the lives of those who come after them.
What are we to say to the boys and girls in their adolescent years when such abstract ideas as honor and duty are presented to them? How are we to inspire them with the desire to be honorable and honored, in their day? Only by our example, our own adherence to duty, our service to honor.
The test of honor is faithfulness. Being faithful in little things, true to the task in hand, having regard for the truth however hurtful it may be personally, add up to honor. In the heat of hard team play, regard for the rules, fair play, no overstepping the line, no getting ahead of the gun. A strict count of points, consideration for the opponent. Courtesy always. But this is not easy for young players, difficult for young people so anxious for success. Success? What success? That of the incident of the hour—or that of eternity?

De Molays Plan On Big Week Ahead

De Molay boys will have a week in which there will be many interesting events ahead for them. They will meet in the Temple in West Monroe, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. At this meeting both degrees will be conferred.
On Friday, May 8 the DeMolays of the Twin Cities will go to Farmerville where degrees will be conferred on a large class.
On Saturday, May 9, all will meet at the Temple in West Monroe to enjoy the fun of a hayride to Cheniere Lake where a chicken barbecue meal will be served.
On Sunday the 20th, De Molays will proceed in a body to the First Christian Church to attend the morning service.

NOTED QUARTET APPEARING HERE

The Blackwood Brothers Quartet known as America's favorite singers of gospel songs, hymns and spirituals will appear in person at the Ouachita Parish High School Auditorium Monday night for a big four hour concert beginning at 8:00 o'clock. The Blackwood Brothers Quartet are in their 15th year of daily broadcast and are now being heard on 110 radio stations from coast to coast with headquarters in Memphis, Tenn. Their many personal appearances take them all over the United States and they are greeted with packed houses wherever they go. Forty-six phonograph records have been released by the quartet and in addition to their records they compile and publish a song book each year and make numerous appearances on television and also on NBC, CBS and ABC networks. It will thrill you the way this great quartet performs with each member of the quartet outstanding.

Blackwood Brothers To Give Program At Ouachita Parish High

To appear with the Blackwood Brothers quartet will be the Wonder State Quartet from Crossett, Ark. with Curtis Doss one of the greatest gospel song writers in the south. Also on the program will be Monroe's own teenage quartet heard on KLIC each Sunday morning and the Twin City Quartet and the Gospelettes.
These groups will put on a preview of the program on station KLIC from 7:00 till 7:30 Monday evening.
Tickets are now on sale in the hands of the teenage quartet. All advance student tickets will be 50 cents regardless of age if purchased in advance from any member of the teen age quartet. At Ouachita get your ticket from Rodney Cannon, Tommy Rainer or Beth Monroe and at Crowley get your ticket from Gay Lynn Monroe or Dee Fuller. At the door the admission will be $1.00 for all over 12 years of age. This concert is being sponsored by the West Monroe singing convention.

ST. MATTHEW'S WILL PAY HONOR

The church will honor motherhood in a three fold way today as she gives praise to earthly mothers for giving us a natural life, to the church for giving us a spiritual life and to the Blessed Virgin Mary as the mother of God. All the Masses, at 6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock will be offered for mothers. That same intention will be commemorated in all the Masses during the remainder of the month of May.

Mothers To Be Accepted Tributes At Services Held Sunday

Rev. J. C. Marsh, pastor of St. Matthew's Catholic Church states as follows concerning the observance of Mother's day in that church:
The church will honor motherhood in a three fold way today as she gives praise to earthly mothers for giving us a natural life, to the church for giving us a spiritual life and to the Blessed Virgin Mary as the mother of God. All the Masses, at 6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock will be offered for mothers. That same intention will be commemorated in all the Masses during the remainder of the month of May.

Publishers Get 1st 20th Century Bible

New York, May 12.—Publishers have received the first manuscripts of a Protestant Old Testament in 20th century English. The manuscripts were delivered yesterday after 14 years of labor by 31 outstanding Biblical scholars. The remaining manuscripts will be delivered in time for September, 1952, publication of a new Bible.
The national council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. claiming to represent 32,000 persons in 29 Protestant and eastern orthodox churches—authorized the work by the Standard Bible Committee.
Dr. Luther A. Welzel, dean-emeritus of Yale divinity school and head of the committee, said his group substituted modern language for old, obsolete expressions.
However, he added, the new Bible is not a revision of the American standard version of 1901 and at the King James version of 1611. The new Bible will contain the reworded Old Testament plus new version of the New Testament, published in 1946.

Mother's Day

Our Mother-

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger civic character. Statutes, today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

As long as Mother lives, we shall not lack for care or love or prayers. When separation comes, as come it must, "death is swallowed up in victory." Life will not change Mother's love; death will not conquer it. Mother's spirit will walk ever beside us; her love will wrap us close. Her gentle hand will guide us; her sweet voice will echo in our ears. Again we'll feel that extra blanket slipped quietly over us, in the coldness of our night! Mother is and will be forever more our guardian angel. In this world or in the next, we know that we may draw eternally upon the strength and the love that is . . . MOTHER.

Texas Gas Station Near Here Is City In Itself

Guthrie Compressor Station One Of 18 Strategically Located Along Texas Gas Pipe Line System From Texas To Ohio

About 14 miles north of Monroe, on what was once an undeveloped tract of land, there is a small but busy 30-acre city-within-a-city, that forms a vital part of Texas Gas Transmission Corporation's pipe line system that passes through this area.

The Guthrie Compressor Station is one of 18 strategically located along the Texas Gas pipe line system extending from Texas to Ohio. Together, the 18 stations form a team that enables Texas Gas to pump over 665 million cubic feet of gas every day from fields in the south-west into the lines of distributing utilities.

Here are some interesting things about the Guthrie station and the men who run it:

1. The station operates 24-hours of every day in the year, staffed by 31 men, many of them living on the station site.

2. Texas Gas personnel employed at the station represent an annual payroll of approximately $100,000—much of which is spent with local merchants in the surrounding area for ordinary family living expenses.

3. The station site includes an imposing steel-frame building enclosing the giant compressors that boost supply of natural gas to market; a building for the generators which do double duty by also furnishing a water supply for the station; a machine shop and warehouse; smaller units for fuel and gas measuring equipment; an office building and a village of dwellings to accommodate key personnel.

These units, dwellings, office space and compressor building give the station site the appearance of a small community of its own.

Manager of the Guthrie station is Albert Barker, a veteran of 21 years experience in the pipe line industry. Before taking over his present post, Mr. Barker served as pipe line walker, oiler, shift engineer and assistant station manager for Texas Gas.

Those helping him in the general operation of the station here are: J. L. Stafford, assistant station manager; G. S. Camp, repairman; H. H. Harrington, repairman; Breathen Thomas, repairman; G. D. Wilson, clerk; W. M. Patterson, machinist; Wm. C. Coggins, utility man; M. L. Antley, electrician; W. R. Goode, carpenter; J. B. Quinn, yardman; and G. F. Roden, carpenter foreman.

The balance of the 31 man crew includes 19 operators. These men, working eight hour shifts in teams of two, control the speed and gas displacement of the compressor engines. The handling of large gas and water valves and the maintaining of precise controls is the specialty of these operators. Besides the gas pressures which they regulate, there are literally hundreds of things they must watch, such as oil pressure, temperature and color, water temperature and strange sounds in the equipment which they are trained to detect instantly in all parts of the plant. The operators at Guthrie include: G. H. Beard, J. E. Jones, Monroe Edgar, Jim Holey, L. A. Sullivan, Floyd Lightsey, W. F. Taunton, F. S. Wilbite, Frank Marshall, V. S. Connell, K. H. Glenn, M. K. Green, W. B. Wigdon, E. F. Hodges, Jack Thompson, J. D. Maxwell, F. R. Pierce, B. M. Church, C. C. Johnson.

Built 23 years ago, the location of the Guthrie station was determined by engineers so that the greatest quantity of gas could be moved with the least possible effort along the entire 2400 mile Texas Gas network. To the nation's natural gas consumers, dependent upon a steady supply of fuel, installations like the one here at Guthrie spell the difference between a long line of pipe and a working natural gas system.

Huge compressor units from 600 to 1250 horsepower each do the job of pumping supplies to market. To give some idea of the work they are capable of, each unit may use from 100,800 to 268,800 cubic feet of gas a day while pumping from 4,000,000 to 11,000,000 cubic feet daily. Each of these 10 compressor units weighs from 30 to 92 tons, exclusive of allied equipment, and this weight explains the size of the main compressor building which is approximately 220 feet long and 70 feet wide.

Texas Gas' Guthrie station, located on a 30 acre tract, probably provides one of the most interesting aspects of the company's operations. Extensive efforts have been made to beautify the land and make it a pleasant place to live as well as to work for employees and their families.

Evidence that station personnel are active in civic and community affairs is seen in the fact that Mr. Barker is a member of the Fairbanks School Board and other station employees belong to various church and civic groups.

Although the station itself operates on a "round-the-clock" basis, it retains a fresh, clean look characterized by gleaming buildings and spotless equipment, grassy lawns, neat roads and carefully planted trees and shrubs. To key station personnel, charged with the responsibility of moving tremendous quantities of natural gas to market, the station site also spells "home."

Marshall, Hickenlooper Agree On Soviet's Honor

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Secretary Marshall and Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), at odds on many phases of the MacArthur controversy, found one thing they could agree on today—Russian honor.

They were discussing Russia's mutual assistance treaty with China. Hickenlooper asked whether the Russians would appreciate a third world war "merely on the theory of supporting a treaty obligation which they had, as a matter of honor?"

"Not as a matter of honor, sir," Marshall replied.

Hickenlooper: "I agree with you thoroughly."

But Marshall said the treaty was a factor to be considered in the far eastern situation—that the Russians wouldn't want to lose in a world war "merely on the theory of supporting a treaty obligation which they had, as a matter of honor?"

Controls Not Related To Ball

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—When both teams argue with the umpire that the runner's safe, that's not baseball. But it could be wage controls.

Eric Johnston gave a house committee that explanation today of his troubles as head of the economic stabilization agency. "I know I was going to be an umpire and would have some pop bottles thrown my way," he said. "And I expected the hitter to claim he was safe when he reached first base. But I didn't know that the first baseman was going to argue, too, that he was safe."

This situation, he went on, has come up when management and labor spokesmen have joined hands to break through the wage ceilings.

RECORD NOMINEE

Franklin D. Roosevelt held the major party record for being nominated for president the most times under the present U. S. electoral system. He was nominated four times, while Grover Cleveland and William Jennings Bryan were nominated three times each.

ON TOUR IN 1923 CAR

Age and distance don't power Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barfield, both 84, of Seattle, Wash., who are visiting in Dallas, Tex. Traveling leisurely in their 1923 Model-T Ford, they are en route to St. Paul, Minn., where they were married, to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary June 10. For the past 20 years their auto license plates have carried the figures 1865, the year of their birth. (AP Wirephoto).

H. B. Barfield Finds Fishing Business Fun

72-Year-Old Newellton Man Passed 50 Years Fished For Livelihood; Owns Fish Company; Ships To St. Louis, New York

By Otis B. Hassell
Winnsboro, La., May 12.—H. B. Barfield, 72-year-old proprietor of the Tensas Fish Company, Newellton, La., has been in the fish business for 50 years.

Mr. Barfield first got "fish fever" as a boy of 16. He saw a plank fence built across Little river in northeast Arkansas to catch the buffalo fish as they came down the river going into Big lake. Such huge number of fish piled up against the fence that they were hauled out in wagon loads.

The fish were taken in wagons to Osceola, Ark., where they were packed in barrels of ice and shipped by steam boat to Memphis. Ice for packing the fish came from Memphis by boat and when the fish being brought to Osceola began to exceed the supply of ice the plank fence was torn down and the rest of the fish allowed to escape into the lake.

Later Mr. Barfield started his fishing career in this vicinity. He hauled fish by wagon through the woods (there were no roads in this part of Arkansas at that time) to Hornersville, Mo., and to the boat landing at Osceola.

After fishing here for about 6 years he moved to Jonesboro, Ark., stayed there four years then went to Little Rock for one year. He has been in Louisiana since 1909, moving to Tallulah at that time. He was in the fish business in and around Winnsboro from 1911 to 1932. Later he moved to the Lake Bruin Island in Tensas parish in 1933 and in 1938 acquired the Tensas Fish Co. at Newellton, where he continues to do business.

Although fish is by far the largest part of his business he also buys and sells frogs, peacocks, furs, and all kinds of turtles, so long as they are big enough to eat. The principal kinds of fish handled by the Tensas Fish Co. are buffalo, catfish, spoonbill catfish and gar. The fish are caught out of the Mississippi river which borders Tensas parish on the east and out of the many lakes and streams inside the parish.

Barfield sells some fish locally but ships most of it to other markets. Last year he shipped over 75,000 pounds. Before the fish are shipped they are packed in wooden boxes, which when packed with fish and ice are ready for shipment, weighing from 100 to 225 pounds each.

The fish are shipped by truck it though" she says. "I love the time I spend with 'my' bells. Up there I lose all sense of time and space, forget the pinpricks of the everyday world and the necessity to earn a living."

Her life is music. She hasn't the slightest interest in clothes or house-keeping. Although she is an experienced and talented musician she's been at bell-ringing barely a year.

Before bells occupied her life, Goguet had composed music. She has produced two masses "a cappella" a symphony for the organ and another work in music and verse "The Rosary" for choir organ and harp. Lately, she's written pieces for the carillon. And the versatile miss has also published several slim volumes of poetry.

Now, though, she's concentrating on the carillon. Already her fame has spread through northern France and Belgium, where the instrument is more frequent and popular than in the rest of the country.

From Easter to Whitsun she travels from church to church, to set her bells singing on Sundays and feast days. Now she has two ambitions. She wants to ring the 58 bells that comprise the largest carillon in France, at the church of Chalons-sur-Marne.

And she wants to visit the U. S. and play the carillons there. In preparation for the trip she's practicing her English.

JOHNSTON URGES MORE PRODUCTION

Calls For Inflation Guard, Adding That Stalin Would Like To See Tumble

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston urged today that America tighten down its efforts to produce for defense and combat inflation.

"Nothing could please Joe Stalin more than to see runaway inflation in this country," he told the house banking committee.

The committee and its senate counterpart are considering President Truman's program for tighter economic controls to follow expiration of the defense production law in June.

As part of that program, Johnston's office is trying to stabilize prices and wages through controls. He said the aim is to establish a line and hold it against the pressures that are pushing up the cost of living.

"We hope to have (price) roll-backs in a great many items," he said, but "trying to push all prices back to pre-Korea days would be like trying to push toothpaste back into a tube."

The office of price stabilization (OPS), one of the agencies under Johnston, today issued a special pricing order requiring barber shops, beauty parlors, laundries, parking lots, etc., to post ceiling prices.

This order, effective May 16, requires that the posted ceiling prices be those which were laid down in the general price freeze, based on charges made in the Dec. 19-Jan. 15 period.

Also included are charges for auto, radio and household appliance repairs, dry cleaning and tailoring, shoe repair, filling station services, checking accounts, bowling alley, skating rink and golf course fees, and admissions to amusement parks.

Although these services run into billions of dollars annually, Johnston, in arguing for vigorous action to hold down the cost of living and the cost of defense, deplored any sense of complacency. He said:

"Despite the lull, despite the seeming improvement in the situation, despite the slowdown in the price rise and the turnaround in some prices, all the factors which make for a rip-roaring inflation are present."

Dial 6121 For Correct Time Courtesy Ouachita National Bank

By Yvonne Brett
What is the correct time? Dial 6121.

A pert voice will answer and relate to the caller to "Put Your Savings to Work at the Ouachita National Bank" and then proceed to give the correct time to the second. The slogan quoted above is only one of many which the operator declares during a 24 hour period.

The Audichron Time of Day service was installed by the Ouachita National Bank as a public service to their customers and friends.

A joke which a local judge recalls concerning the machine brings to view the effect of the girls voice on men who dial the number seeking the accurate time.

"A certain young man in our fair city called 6121 and was so impressed with the female voice that he dialed the number again," said the judge. The second time he called he attempted to stop the voice from giving the routine announcement, but the would-be-admirer failed so he tried again and again. At last in desperation, after many calls, he became so aggravated that the voice spurned his attention before the telephone from the wall."

This is one of many incidents which have occurred concerning time service.

The time of day announcement machine is a device for announcing the time of day over the telephone system. This equipment is located in the central office building and connected with the central office equipment of the Southern Bell Telephone company.

By dialing 6121, this system automatically gives the time of day to the calling party, by utilization of the principle of the electric eye following a sound track.

The sound track consists of a film placed upon a glass cylinder in an arrangement similar to the stripes on a barber shop pole. There are two of these cylinders; one upon which the sound track or film is wound three revolutions, which serves to furnish the commercial announcement at the end of which the hour is announced; the second glass cylinder serves to announce the particular minute and is wound on the cylinder at one revolution.

It follows that as the hour tracks are advanced one each hour, that at the 12th hour the first hour is the cylinder, being advanced one film each minute and at the 60th minute the first minute is next forthcoming. Consequently, the rotation of progression of these commercial cylinders under the control of the machine mechanism is repeated.

There are two of these machines connected together and these two run continuously and are synchronized so that in the event of mechanical failure of one machine, the second machine is automatically cut into service to provide uninterrupted time of day service to people calling in.

An itemized statement sent to the bank by the telephone company showed that the time service was received approximately 5,000 calls each day, which would add up to 1,825,000 calls a year.

During the first days of service reports computed by the telephone company showed that the number of calls received were as follows:

March 8—3,688
March 9—5,057
March 10—5,671
March 11—6,612
March 12—5,217

Citizens of the Twin Cities have no cause to worry today for want of correct time. Dial 6121.

TRAVEL. LEARN COURSE TECH'S

38 Students Will Pursue Unique Course This Summer

Ruston, May 12.—(Special)—Thirteen Louisiana Tech students have already signed up to take the holiday-and-study course in history and geography, which is being offered by Tech at the end of the summer session, according to Miss Mabel May, registrar.

Tech is the first college in the state to be offering such a course. The unique learn-while-you-travel course will take 36 students on a 21-day tour of the east coast, Canada and the middle west.

Each student will pay a fee of $180, which will include transportation and lodging. Three hours credit each in geography and history will be given at the end of the trip. Cost of food will be extra.

Officials here pointed out that anyone wishing to make the trip and audit the courses without getting credit may do so if they desire.

Cities along the route will include Jackson, Miss., Chattanooga, Morgantown and Asheville, S. C., Williamsburg and Richmond, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Concord, N. H., Niagara and Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and Little Rock.

Historical sites and points of geographical interest will be visited at the cities and along the way. Lectures will take place on an air-conditioned bus and at stops during the trip.

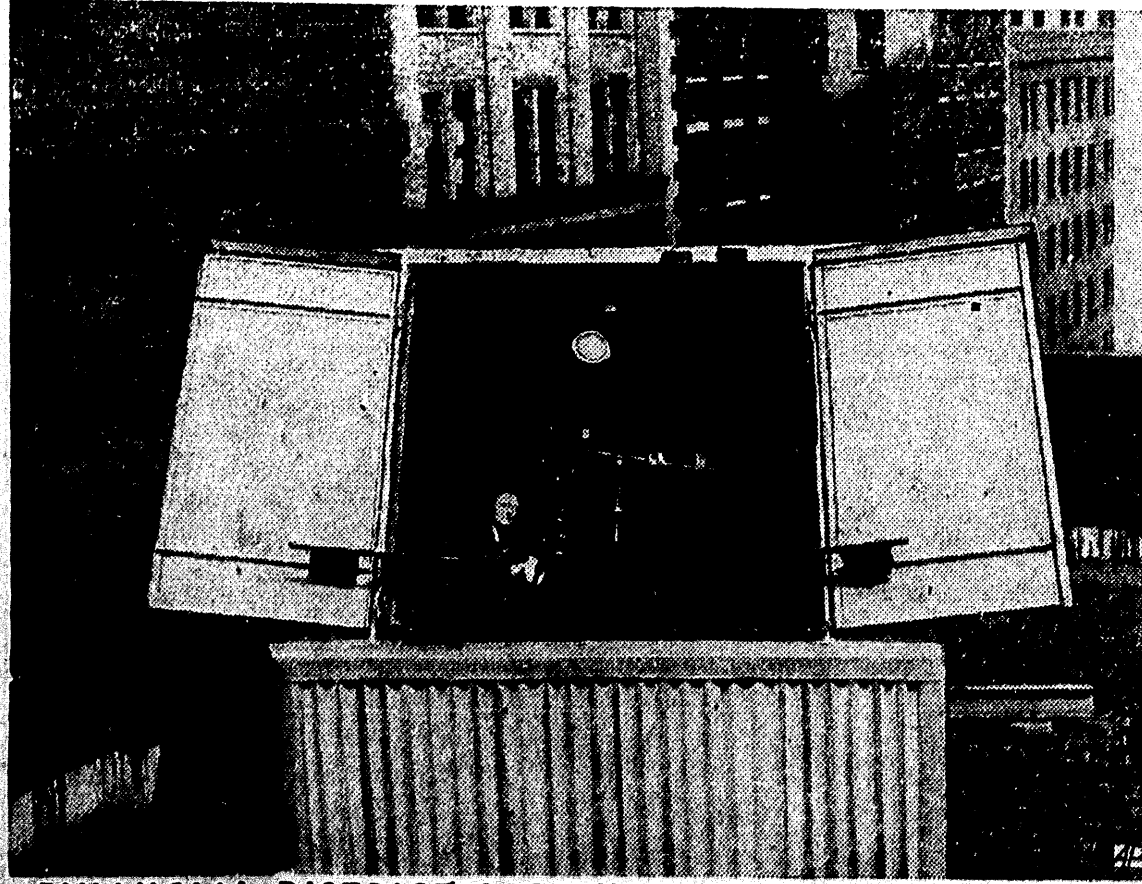

Two professors of Tech, Robert O. Trout and Dr. G. W. McGinty, will be in charge of the trip. Mr. Trout will teach geography and Dr. McGinty, history.

'Frenchie' Coming To Joy Drive-In

Introducing Hollywood's newest glamor gladiators—Shelley Winters and Marie Windsor.

The feminine foes square off against each other—with no holds barred—in Universal-International's Technicolor "Frenchie," starring Miss Winters with Joel McCrea and opening Tuesday at the Joy Drive-In Theatre.

The barroom battle, which is a highlight of the new action-film, posed an important problem to Director Louis King. He sought the advice of many authorities in the film industry as to whether women should emulate men in their film fights—or whether they should go at it in the identical manner of a pair of wildcats.

One school of thought maintained that a battle between dames is not the real McCoy, unless hair is pulled, fingernails are broken, knees are bruised, skin is scratched and arms are waving like windmills.

It was with that premise in mind that Director King filmed the fight sequence for "Frenchie." Studio oldtimers who viewed the rushes claimed it overshadowed the historic battle staged by Marlene Dietrich and Una Merkel in "Destry Rides Again" which, incidentally, was filmed on the very same sound stage.

Shelley and Marie spent a total of three entire days locked in combat before the Technicolor cameras. When the final day was completed the pair retired to the studio first aid department where their bruises and scratches were given professional attention.

Card Is Keepsake Of U. S. Regiment

Somewhere in Korea, May 12.—(AP)—A hand-painted greeting card printed in childish but painstakingly correct English, is a treasured keepsake of the famed U.S. 27th "Wolfhound" regiment.

It came yesterday from the 170 orphans the regiment has been supporting.

The greeting card was accompanied by packets of letters in Japanese.

The card said: "With the Wolfhounds of the 27th regiment every grace and blessing, every success and happiness, on the occasion of its 50th birthday. From the orphans, Osaka, Japan."

AT THE PARAMOUNT

Beautiful Gene Tierney and handsome John Lund are teamed for the first time in the romantic comedy, "The Mating Season," which arrives at the Paramount Theatre today for a four-day engagement. Thelma Ritter and Miriam Hopkins are also featured.

Thelma Ritter, Screen Comedy Star, Gets Funniest Role In 'Mating Season'

Gene Tierney And John Lund Starred In Film At Paramount

A new screen comedy with a topflight cast and a refreshingly original story will set up shop today at the Paramount theatre with the opening of Paramount's "The Mating Season." Starring Gene Tierney and John Lund, and with the fabulous Thelma Ritter in her richest comedy role to date, the film deals with the merry and tumultuous consequences of a marriage between a smug socialite and a boy from the other end of town.

According to advance audiences, this is the laugh treat of the year, as well as the vehicle that will send Miss Ritter zooming to stardom. Thelma, who had previously been cited for her fine comedy portrayals in "All About Eve" and "A Letter to Three Wives," reportedly establishes herself as filmland's funniest and most lovable comedienne in "The Mating Season." Cast as a hamburger stand operator, she closes shop and hitch hikes out to her son's love nest to work her hilarious brand of magic on a wild marital mix up. What happens then is said to constitute the brightest and warmest comedy to come from the screen in many seasons.

Glamorous Gene Tierney, who usually plays a femme fatale—or at least a girl with serious change of pace in this romantic comedy. She appears as a diplomat's daughter who marries a low-salaried draftsman and enters into a round of domestic high jinx. John Lund, an old and accomplished hand at comedy, portrays a harried groom who tries to cope with a love rival, a ludicrous blonde schemer, and a malicious mother-in-law.

The film marks the return to the screen of Miriam Hopkins, after an absence of several years. She appears as an upper crust matron who turns her nose up and her thumbs down when her daughter marries for love. And shaped by Jan Sterling plays the torrid temptress with designs on the young draftsman.

See director Mitchell Leisen is said to have staged these uproarious proceedings in a brisk style that makes the most of the salty dialogue and howling situations. Producer Charles Brackett, who has been responsible for many top films, including the Academy Award winning "The Lost Weekend," wrote the screenplay for "The Mating Season," in collaboration with Walter Reisch and Richard Breen.

Jimmie Fidler In Hollywood

Hollywood, May 12.—Time out this ayem while I make one of my lowest bows to Bette Davis, not for another magnificent performance, but for a refreshing note of honesty in an interview. The scribe, representing a British movie publication, asked her to give him her formula for achieving lasting marital bliss. Said Miss Davis: "Obviously, I'm no authority; I'm on my fourth marriage."

Why how to an attitude which, as she herself pointed out, should be "obvious?" Why, simply because 999 Hollywood stars out of 1000, having had as unfortunate marital records as hers, and being asked the same question, would promptly have given out with a torrent of glib, "infallible" rules. They would have felt obliged to do so even though, at that very moment, they were considering new divorces. It's part of the Hollywood "front." Having been publicized as a romantic figure, the average star feels that it's incumbent upon her to pose, at all times, as an expert on everything pertaining to romance.

I remember an occasion, some years ago, when I witnessed the marriage in Ensenada, Mexico, of a screen star who had already been through the divorce mills twice in spite of the fact that she was still in her early twenties. After the ceremony a reporter asked her for a statement, and she instantly assured him that this new marriage was for keeps. She knew it would last because of the rules she and her groom had decided upon. "How about the other two marriages?" I asked her, later. "Those?" she answered, a bit vaguely, as though considerable effort were required to even recall them. "Oh, but I never felt SURE about any of the others!"

Six months later, I reported her third divorce suit.

Preview nights: Pic of a lack-lustre week: United Artists' "New Mexico" (Lew Ayres - Marjory Maxwell-Andy Divine-Robert Hutton). Another U.S. Cavalry-vs-Indians drama, but one that is lifted far above average by intelligent plotting, capable direction and excellent performances. . . . Off-the-beat-on path: United Artists' "Fabiola." An Italian-made "colossal," dealing with the Fourth Century persecution of Christians in Rome, and worth seeing because of its authentic backgrounds, outstanding photography and spectacular scenes. . . . Fair: Warner Brothers' "Along the Great Divide" (Kirk Douglas - Virginia Mayo - John Agar - Walter Brennan). A mildly interesting attempt at "arty" western drama that most theatre goers will take in stride. . . . United Artists' "The Second Woman" (Robert Young - Betsy Drake - John Sutton - Henry O'Neill - Florence Bates). "Psychological drama" with an intriguing premise that is often lost in a labyrinth of snail-paced plot de-cours. . . . Monogram's "Ghost Chasers" (Len Gorcey-Huntz Hall). The Bowery Boys manage to generate a few laughs while proving that you don't need a farm to grow a heavy crop of "corn." . . . Columbia's "Her First Romance" (Margaret O'Brien - Allen Martin, Jr.). A trite comedy-drama that will do little to advance Miss O'Brien's comeback campaign. . . . Best Performance: Lew Ayres in "New Mexico."

One of Hollywood's independent publicists states that Director Frank Tuttle (presumably his client) is anxious to return to the United States and amplify, before the House Un-American Activities Committee, his statement that he was a member of the Communist

CAN YOU PAY 31% IN TAXES ON THE NEXT CAR YOU NEED?

*The $2,000 car will cost $2,161 with the $644.00 total load shown above. Without any tax load it would cost you only $1517. The tax alone costs the buyer $215.00 down and $30.59 per month for 15 months under the present Federal Board Regulation "W". Then Mr. Car Buyer purchases the car on top of the Federal and State taxes paying 1/3 down or $510.00 more and $72.56 per month for 15 months.

Putting the two together, it's $725 down payment and $103.15 per month and no interest or insurance is included. 31% of your new car will be taxes if we let the new Excise Tax become law.

The contemplated new tax of $161.00 will come out of the car buyer's pocket. If the buyer purchased the new car at dealer cost, the $644.00 would still be there. And the increase of $161 on the lower priced cars will be there unless Mr. Public writes or wires the Ways and Means Committee, Washington, D. C., that you have had enough. The full increase will not be a profit item to the manufacturer, or the dealer—it will be collected from the ultimate consumer and returned to the government.

ALREADY 25%, approximately, of what you pay for a new car is Taxes—already your new car dealer is compelled to pass on to you a 3 1/2% car price increase recently established by the government — already another government regulation has compelled you to pay one-third down and limited your time — payments to fifteen months — and now a bill being considered by the Ways and Means Committee of Congress would increase the present 7% Federal Excise Tax on new cars to 20%.

Already millions of people who need cars in the conduct of their work are priced out of car ownership. This new tax threatens to increase the cost of even the lowest-priced car beyond the reach of millions of additional potential buyers — and to increase the cost of larger cars as much as $334.23.

HALF OF THE CARS SOLD IN '50 WERE IN THE LOW PRICE FIELD

Yes! 49.1% of the 6,663,461 passenger cars produced in 1950 were the 3,276,525 units of the low price field. These were built to fill the needs and fit the pocketbooks of the 84% of working families who earn less than $5,000 a year.

Of the 49,000,000 (millions) employed families and unrelated employed persons (comprising our 153 million population) 39% earn less than $2,000 annually, and only 16% made more than $5,000 annually. These 49.1% ($5,000 or less pay-earners) are the people who will be priced out of the car-owning market if the now contemplated increase in Federal Tax on automobiles becomes law.

This is more than a matter that concerns the 50,000 automobile dealers in U. S. A. and their 500,000 employees plus their families. It more than concerns the motor vehicle manufacturers, their employees and their stock holders. It is a matter that concerns every person in U. S. A. It vitally concerns every one of the 49.1% who buy cars in the low price field — and practically all of the 84% who earn less than $5,000 per year.

YOUR CAR IS AN ESSENTIAL TOOL

The essentiality of the automobile in American life is more vital today than ever before. We are at war, and preparing for an enormous defense program. Whether we like it or not, we are a nation long since committed to going to work and transporting the product of our work in motor vehicles. The very locations of our factories and the travel arteries that reach them are based upon the essentiality of motor vehicle transportation. And topping this essentiality is the family automobile. The family that is without one is out of quick transportation; out of luck; and often out of productive work.

LET CONGRESS KNOW HOW YOU FEEL!

Do It Now — At Once — Tomorrow May Be Too Late!

YOU—THE PUBLIC—WILL PAY ALL OF THIS 31% TAX!

NOW, HERE'S AN ARTICLE THAT PROVES WHAT I'VE ALWAYS BEEN SAYING, MYSELF

WHAT'S THAT?

AS LONG AS EVERYONE'S HAVING BATHS, I MIGHT AS WELL GIVE THE PUPS THEIRS

COME, PUPPIES. MAMA WANTS TO GIVE YOU YOUR BATH

IT SAYS THERE'S NOTHING MORE RELAXING AND SOOTHING FOR TIRED NERVES THAN TO LIE IN A TUB OF HOT WATER AND SOAK

WELL, WHY DON'T YOU DO IT?

WAIT--YOU'RE USING ALL THE HOT WATER AND THERE WON'T BE ANY LEFT FOR ME

OH, MY GOODNESS, WE'D BETTER SEE

NOT UP THERE--YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE YOUR BATH IN THE LAUNDRY

FIRST, I WANT TO MAKE SURE EVERYBODY'S HAD THEIR BATHS--I DON'T WANT TO BE DISTURBED

I'VE HAD MY BATH

THERE--THERE'S A NICE TUBFUL OF HOT WATER FOR YOU

LUCKY I SPOKE--THAT'S THE LAST OF THE HOT WATER

THEY THOUGHT I MEANT IN THIS TUB

WE HAD OUR BATHS, POP

GOOD--THEN I CAN LIE IN THAT DELICIOUS HOT WATER FOR AN HOUR AND SOAK AND RELAX

I'M GOING TO STOP WORRYING AND JUST LIE IN THAT TUB AND SMOKE AND READ

ANYWAY, DEAR, THAT'S BETTER THAN THE INDIANS HAD

HUSBANDS ARE A SORRY LOT!

YOU MAKE ME SICK--WHY AREN'T YOU LIKE OTHER MEN--WHO STAY HOME AND ENJOY THE PEACE AND QUIET OF THEIR HOMES?

WHAT OTHER MEN?

PARDON--MRS. JIGGS--MRS. WAITT--MISS TADDEY AND MRS. SID TADELL ARE HERE TO SEE YOU!

COME--GIRLS--WE HAVE MUCH TO TALK ABOUT--

NOW--IT COMMES--IT'S MY MOVE!

I THINK I'LL SIT IN---

GET OUT OF HERE--I'VE GOT TO CLEAN UP IN HERE!!

HELLO--MR. JIGGS--MY CARPET SWEEPER IS BROKEN--I KNOW WHAT A MECHANIC YOU ARE--I'M GOING TO SEND IT OVER SO YOU CAN FIX IT!!

WE WERE JUST PASSING BY--SO WE THOUGHT WE'D DROP IN--

MY HUSBAND WOULD LIKE TO READ SOME OF HIS POEMS TO MR. JIGGS!!

COME IN--FOLKS--I WANT YOU TO MEET MY VISITING RELATIVES!

I CAME OVER TO CHAT WITH YOU--JIGGS--I HATE TO STAY HOME!!

WHEN YOU GIT TIME--I WANT YOU TO HELP ME HANG MY SCREENS--

STICK 'EM UP! I'VE GOT YOU COVERED--

I WONDER IF HE HAS ENOUGH INFLUENCE TO GET MY HUSBAND OUT OF JAIL--

Right Around HOME with MYRTLE

by Dudley Fisher

WE NEVER THOUGHT MYRTLE WOULD BE AN ACTRESS, BUT WHEN THEY PICKED HER FOR THE LEADING LADY IN THE SCHOOL PLAY, I'M JUST NATURALLY THRILLED ABOUT IT!

SO WE BOUGHT A WHOLE BLOCK OF TICKETS RIGHT DOWN IN FRONT AND WE WANT YOU ALL TO COME AS OUR GUESTS!

I THOUGHT WHEN JUNIOR GOT INTO COLLEGE, HE WOULDN'T HAVE TO GO TO THE GRADE SCHOOL STUNTS ANY MORE!

BUT THIS WILL BE OVER BY NINE O'CLOCK, YOU CAN STILL CATCH THE WRESTLING!

CAN I GO JUST AS I AM?

YOU'D LOOK BETTER IF YOU'D PUT ON A TIE!

I'M GOING TO INSIST ON PAYING FREDDIE FOR OUR TICKETS. THEN WHEN WE HAVE OUR RAFFLE, I'LL NICK HIM FOR A WHOLE BOOK.

AND TEN YEARS FROM NOW, WHEN MYRTLE HITS BROADWAY, YOU CAN SAY, "I SAW HER IN HER FIRST PUBLIC PERFORMANCE!"

IF SHE'S GOING TO BE SMART, SHE DON'T WANT HER OLD AUTOGRAPH.

GET YOUR OWN TICKETS, I'M TAKING LILLIAN!

IF YOU CATCH COLD IN YOUR PITCHING ARM, YOU CAN'T PLAY NEXT SATURDAY!

YOU'D BETTER KEEP THAT SHOULDER COVERED UP!

GEE WHIT, MYRTLE, JUTH BECAUSE YOU'RE A LEADING LADY YOU DON'T NEED TO GO HOLLYWOOD ON UTH!

I DON'T CARE WHAT THE OTHERS WEAR, ARNOLD, IT'S A FIRST NIGHT AND WE ARE GOING TO DRESS.

THAT'S NOT MY IDEA OF A LEADING LADY BUT SHE IS LEADING!

DOWN IN FRONT!

COME ON, FOLKS, LET'S GIVE THE KID A BIG HAND... WHAT DO YOU THINK I BOUGHT ALL THESE SEATS FOR?

HIYA, MOM! HOW'M I DOING?

MOO!

OH FOR PITY TAKE! MYRTLE! THAT IT'S NOT WHAT YOU'RE THUPPOTHED TO THAY!

OH, MYRTLE!

I THOUGHT YOU WERE BRINGING LILLIAN!

SHE HAD ONE OF HER SUDDEN HEADACHES.

BEWILDERED, THE APE SAID, "FOR MANY MOONS MEMBERS OF MY TRIBE DISAPPEAR WHEN BLACK HOLE SWALLOW ME, I THINK I GO, TOO!"

THE APE-MAN SCOWLED WHO WAS WILLFULLY TRAPPING THE MANGANI? WHY?--GO BACK TO YOUR TRIBE," HE COMMANDED. "TELL THEM NOT TO BE AFRAID. TARZAN WILL AVENGE HIS PEOPLE!"

...LATER, WHEN TARZAN HAD FINISHED MAKING NEW WEAPONS, A FAMILIAR SCENT CROSSED HIS NOSTRILS--THE GIRL AGAIN!

HE SHOULDERS HIS NEW BOW AND LEAPED AFTER HER. SHE MUST BE QUESTIONED!

CAUGHT, THE GIRL BIT AND SCRATCHED, THEN PLEADED FOR FREEDOM. TARZAN WAS ASTONISHED--FOR SHE SPOKE IN THE LANGUAGE OF THE GREAT APES!

DO YOU SPEAK TRUTHFULLY AND QUICKLY, OR MUST I AGAIN—?

NO! NO! NOT AGAIN! I TALK! IT IS NIKOLI WHO GEEVE THE ORDER!

NIKOLI, EH? THAT EVIL, SQUAT DEVIL! KNEW I'D COME HERE—FIGURED TO LIQUIDATE MY BOYS, BANCROFT AND THE REST, BEFORE I ARRIVED, EH?

NO-NO—NOT THE BEWHISKERED ONE—NOT THE RED-HAIRED CHILD—

ANNIE? SHE'S DOWN THERE? IF ANYONE HARMS HER, I'LL—

NO—SHE MUST BE TAKEN ALIVE! OUR NIKOLI IS MERCIFUL!

YEAH! I KNOW YOUR BOSS—FIGURES TO USE ANNIE TO MAKE ME TALK—THEN KILL HER—WELL—

YOU SHALL RELAX NOW IN THESE BUSHES, TILL WE RETURN!

IT'S NO USE, ANNIE! GUN'S EMPTY—JUST TOO MANY OF THEM—

WELL, WE'RE STILL ALIVE—

THEY ARE HARMLESS—TAKE THEM TO OUR CAMP—NIKOLI IS ON THE WAY—

THEY'LL BE SAFE FOR NOW—(I'M THE ONE NIKOLI WANTS—AND I WANT NIKOLI!

WILL WE SEND WORD FOR HELP?

NO—YOU AND I SHOULD BE ENOUGH FOR HIM AND HIS WHOLE GANG—THEY WILL BE BRAVE AGAINST ONLY TWO OF US—

REMINDS ME OF THE TIME POOR FRED FEUBRAYNE WAS HUNTING IN THE JUNGLE—HE SAW TWO EYES SHINING IN A BIG HOLE, UNDER A LEDGE—

S-13-SL

EYES WERE SO FAR APART, FRED FIGURED HE'D CORNERED TWO ONE-EYED RABBITS—SO BOLDLY HE CRAWLED IN AFTER THEM—

TURNED OUT HE'D CORNERED A THIRTY-FOOT PYTHON—TCH—TCH!

AH—HERE WE ARE, ASP—THINK WE CAN LOOK LIKE TWO ONE-EYED RABBITS, WHEN BRAVE NIKOLI COMES ALONG?

YES—AND MAY OUR STORY HAVE AN INTERESTING ENDING—FOR NIKOLI!

FLASH GORDON

by MAC RABOY and DON MOORE

UNDERNEATH THE SURFACE OF THE MOON, IN A SEALED CAVERN FILLED WITH ARTIFICIAL AIR, A MYSTERIOUS HUMAN NAMED RAK SENDS A TELEPATHIC BROADCAST TO HIS BEETLE-MEN. "THE EARTH-MEN WILL RETURN WITH THEIR SPACE-SHIP TO ATTACK US. FIND THEIR SHIP.... DESTROY IT!"

MEANWHILE, FLASH LANDS HIS ROCKET BEHIND A RANGE OF MOUNTAINS THAT SCREEN HIM FROM THE LAUNCHING CRATER USED BY THE MOON-MEN TO BOMBARD THE EARTH WITH METEORS. "WE'LL HIDE THE SHIP IN A CREVICE AND CREEP UP ON THEM," FLASH SAYS.

BECAUSE THE MOON'S GRAVITY IS WEAK, FLASH, DALE, AND PROF. BRITE ARE ABLE TO MOVE THE HUGE SHIP TO A HIDING PLACE. BUT A BEETLE-MAN SPOTS THEIR LANDING TRACK ON THE POWDERY SURFACE AND SPIES ON THEM.

AFTER A LONG TREK, FLASH AND HIS PARTY ARRIVE AT A HATCHWAY. WHILE DALE KEEPS WATCH ON THE BEETLE-MEN WHO ARE BUSY REPAIRING THEIR ATOM-CANNON, FLASH OPENS THE HATCH. "IF THIS TUNNEL LEADS TO THEIR HEADQUARTERS, WE'LL GIVE THEM SOMETHING NEW TO WORRY ABOUT!" HE SAYS.

THEY ENTER A SEALED CHAMBER UNDERGROUND. "WHY SHOULD THERE BE AN AIRLOCK HERE?" PROF. BRITE WONDERES. "THERE'S NO AIR ON THE MOON AND THE MOON-MEN DON'T BREATHE." FLASH, WORKING ON THE INNER DOOR, WHISPERS: "THERE MAY BE OTHER, MORE DANGEROUS, CREATURES HERE!"
